tilda

Where seasonal menus are finely crafted with Australia's local produce

FRESH. LOCAL. FLAWLESS.

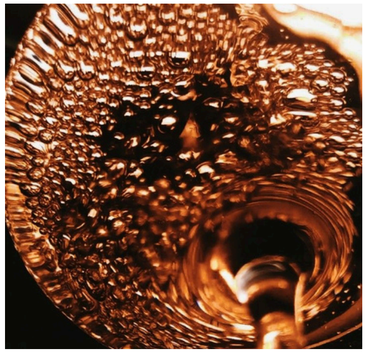
The hotel's street or lobby level restaurant, Tilda, provides a casual yet elegant modern Australian dining experience. It combines ingredients like charcoal cooking and heavily incorporates Australian produce, particularly seafood, from both land and sea. The decor and service strive for sophistication without being stuffy, creating a sophisticated yet casual setting. There are roughly 110 seats available. Highlights of the menu include the robust local wine list, spanner crab ravioli, and zesty calamari. It is a component of House Made Hospitality's new dining area and serves breakfast as well.

bar tilda

Discover whisky collections from around the world

WHISKEYS ALL SET.

Immerse yourself in a space where traditional drinking rituals are combined with Australian ingredients, flavours and nostalgic storytelling. bar tilda boasts an extensive spirits collection and a 80-strong Australian whisky library housed in a handsome armoire, evoked by the glamour and nostalgia of the 1960s - the era the hotel was launched. Mid-century glamour is embodied in the bar's signature Flora Martini, made tableside and poured into a bespoke glass. Other creations such as Dollars and Cents, a tropical drink featuring London dry gin, pineapple jam, pepper, macadamia, citrus, and lime oil commemorating Australia's 1966 currency change, and Lost At Sea, a tribute to former prime minister Harold Holt who disappeared at a Victorian beach in 1967, blending botanical vodka, tea tree, orange, lemon salt, and green apple, marry storytelling with innovation.



DELTA RUE

Every plate tells a story of heritage

FRENCH TECHNIQUE,
VIETNAMESE SOUL.

Delta Rue is a French-Vietnamese restaurant that blends the flavours and atmosphere of both cultures. It has a dining area and a deck and is located on level 5. Using colonial French and Vietnamese design cues (murals, salvaged timbers, muted wallpapers, etc.), the décor draws inspiration from old-world Hanoi (Old Quarter). The menu includes items like rice cakes stuffed with meat, turmeric-roasted John Dory, and communal plates including herbs, spices, and a strong flavour. Additionally, Delta Rue serves a buffet and à la carte breakfast menu in the mornings that features local ingredients. The space is spacious and lively.

WENTWORTH BAR

Break free from the city pace and unwind in a rooftop sanctuary

WHERE SKY MEETS SPIRITS.

The rooftop terrace bar and lounge area, Wentworth Bar, is intended to provide a sense of an elevated haven above the city. With plenty of sitting options for both casual drinkers and guests staying longer, it's spacious and features both indoor and outdoor seats, lush foliage, natural finishes, and design elements like a copper/glass canopy. The drink menu features easily drinkable and approachable wines, cocktails and bar snacks. It features DJ nights, which create a lively scene, particularly on Thursday and Friday evenings. The terrace's high capacity (about 250 people) and year-round use are made possible by its weather-resistant design.
