THE EXPERT TALKS

CHEF GERARDO RIVERA

With culinary expertise and a passion for creating unforgettable dining experiences, Chef Gerardo Rivera highlights one guest request as one reason to 2023: How do you find traditional Mexican flavors and ingredients with unique regional specialties? Key reason by regional dishes or ingredients being their key!

As an establishment, we take pride in offering premium ingredients sourced from local producers and suppliers. Our menu will change to explore Mexican old and diverse ingredients, being such items as handmade and regional other cultures, including Spanish, French, and Italian dishes. 2. How do you stay up to date with the latest gastronomy trends while still honoring and preserving the rich culinary tradition of Mexico? Are there any specific trends or innovations that you've noticed in your career so far?

Being in the kitchen means fully immersing myself in the ever-evolving world of gastronomy. Being informed has become one of my habits, reading the press of gastronomy, the internet, and beyond. It's crucial to stay updated and inspired by the latest trends and innovations in the industry. The ongoing process of staying up to date is a continuous one, and it's essential to stay on top of the latest trends, emerging ingredients, and innovative techniques. This is how we can stay ahead of the curve and offer our guests the best possible dining experience.

3. How do you maintain and manage quality control in a high-end restaurant setting? What are some key factors for ensuring consistency and excellence in the kitchen?

The dining industry is constantly in search of new experiences, which is why we have focused on creating a kitchen that offers unique and memorable experiences.
