INTRODUCTION

At Oncore, we acknowledge the Gadigal people, the traditional custodians of this land in which we have gathered. We pay respect to the Elders of the past, present and emerging.

The wine list at Oncore by Clare Smyth embraces everything Clare and the team love about wine from old, fine and rare to young, new and exciting. Our cellar is home to wines that are already firm favourites, vintages to return to time and time again as well as a host of fresh discoveries waiting to be tried; an authentic reflection on the wine world today.

Our team are entirely dedicated to exceptional wine and hope to offer a list that excites every palette. We are proud of the depth that has been meticulously built into the collection, matching Oncore's food and service with our shared dedication to excellence.

We appreciate the uniqueness of every bottle and wish to commend the hard work of their production. We strive to do justice to all those involved from the growers, to the winemakers and the barrel crafters. Many dedicated hands were responsible in bringing these wines to our door, and to your table.

To see the vineyards, feel the soil, taste the grapes, and talk to the producers - this is something you can't find in wine books. We travel regularly to wine regions and as sommeliers, we are the connection between the winemaker and the consumer. Each opportunity for our guests to experience the provenance of individual wines fuels our enthusiasm and gives us the chance to share our passion for wine.

We aim to provide the highest level of service but without the pretence. We want you to have fun, and we want to make it personal, tailored to you and your time with us.

It doesn't matter if you don't know your Cabernet from your Carignan. In fact, that's even more exciting for us because we then get to act as your guide and hopefully share something new.

ONCORE WINE PAIRING

ONCORE CLASSICS

100ml glass per course

$215 per person

2021 Theirry Germain 'L'Insolite', Chenin Blanc, Saumur, Loire Valley, France

Theirry's Insolite, meaning "unusual", comes from a tiny plot of gnarled 90-year-old Chenin Blanc vines embedded in clayey, silex-rich soils over chalky limestone bedrock.

2022 LAS VINO 'Albino', Pinot Noir | Chardonnay, Margaret River, Western Australia

A barrel-fermented 'vin gris' or 'blanc de noirs' - a white wine made from a red grape variety and a splash (14%) of Chardonnay. Grown and made by Nic Peterkin, son of Piero's founding winemaker Dr. Michael Peterkin.

2020 Cyprien Arlaud, Pernand Vergelesses Village, Chardonnay, Burgundy, France

Cyprien Arlaud is a third generation winemaker that farms biodynamic. This is a village wine from Pernand Vergelesses, which borders the famous 'Hill of Corton' in the Côte de Beaune. This is a pure, chalky expression of Chardonnay that gets supported by toast and a touch of spice from the minimal oak influence in this wine.

2022 Rudi Pichler, Grüner Veltliner, 'Federspiel', Wachau, Austria

From the hands of a family estate established in 1731, this wine is made with a native Austrian grape variety and is packed with varietal characteristics, like herbal, vegetal, spice and stone fruit aromas.

2019 Villa Antinori, 'Riserva', Sangiovese, Chianti Classico, Tuscany, Italy

This is a wine from the Italian 'royal family of wine'. Antinori is most famous for the 'Tignanello' Super Tuscan. This Chianti Classico Riserva is showing though the ultimate Sangiovese character: sour cherries and earth aromas taking the lead.

2018 Royal Tokaji Company, 'Late Harvest' Furmint | Hárslevelű | Muscat de Lunel, Mád, Hungary

Tokaji wine gets a mention in the Hungarian national anthem. The only wine in the world to achieve this kind of recognition. This 'Late Harvest' version of Royal Tokaji is an early released style with freshness and minerality cutting through the sweetness.

2021 Bodegas Pentecostés, Albarino, Rías Baixas, Galicia, Spain

The Pazo de Barreiro vineyard in the Miñor Valley in the O Rosal subregion was in disrepair in 2015 and the many divided plots were bought by Alberto Cabaco, who was successful in the fishing industry of Galicia prior to establishing the bodegas. Alberto hired a former Galician sommelier as the winemaker and bodegas Pentecostés is now the first commercial winery in the Miñor Valley in over a hundred years.

2021 Robert Weil 'Trocken', Riesling, Rheingau, Germany

One of the purest expressions of vineyard and site among any grape variety. This dry Riesling made by one of Rheingau's principal producers, is a classic wine style.

2019 Metzer 'Montane', Chenin Blanc, Stellenbosch, South Africa

A 'Steen' - Afrikaans for 'chenin blanc' - from a bush vine parcel planted in 1964. The vineyard is situated on the foothills of the Helderberg mountain. Wane Metzer started Metzer Family Wines in 2006.

2021 Daniel Chotard, Sauvignon Blanc, Sancerre, Loire Valley, France

The cool and wet 2021 vintage in Loire has created classic Loire characters in the region's whites. This cuvée of the historic Daniel Chotard - the family winery in the village of Reigny makes wines for over 200 years - has crunchy grapefruit, white flowers, chalky minerality and freshness. Sancerre white as a textbook example!

2018 Craiglee, Shiraz, Sunbury, Victoria

From the fabled 1872 Craiglee 'Hermitage' Shiraz to the 2018 Craiglee Shiraz - 155 years of Sunbury winemaking history culminated in the making of this wine. You can think of it as a 'New World Hermitage'.

N.V. Henriques and Henriques '15 Year Old Boal', Boal, Madeira, Portugal

The winery is named after the brothers Francisco Eduardo and João Joaquim Henriques. Located in Câmara de Lobos, historically regarded as the best area for Madeira wine production.

CHAMPAGNE

We love our Champagne at Oncore! Quite simply, because Champagne continues to be the envy of the world's sparkling wine producers. Ok, so Champagne sales have taken a hit from Prosecco recently, while English sparkling wine producers are rightly shouting about their usefully high acidity levels as the Champagne region warms up. But Champagne still rules, especially when it comes to ageing. That said, the big Champagne houses are being challenged by a new wave of producers who prefer to wear a pair of jeans than a sharp suit; who might farm organically, and focus on single vineyard and single grape variety wines. Cue the Champagne grower. The rise of the grower-producers has revolutionised this generation in the region. Top Champagne is no longer the exclusive realm of the big players. While single vineyard is the new vanguard, with deliciously complex cuvées from trailblazing terroiriste growers taking the wine world by storm.

"I only drink Champagne when I'm happy, and when I'm sad. Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone. When I have company, I consider it obligatory. I trifle with it if I am not hungry and drink it when I am. Otherwise I never touch it – unless I'm thirsty." Lily Bollinger

BURGUNDY - CÔTE DE BEAUNE

Getting your head around Burgundy's classification system, Ok, deep breath. There are general appellations, such as Bourgogne Blanc, and regional appellations, such as Chablis. Village wines come next, naming the best villages, such as Meursault. Next up is premier cru, the second-best vineyard within each village – the village comes first on the label, like Meursault-Charmes. Finally, grands crus, the top wines in Burgundy, from the top vineyards.

"I feel sorry for people who don't drink. When they wake up in the morning, that's as good as they're going to feel all day." - Frank Sinatra

BOURGOGNE - CÔTE DE NUITS

Stretching from Dijon to just south of Nuits-St.Georges the Côtes de Nuits is Burgundy's premier area for red wine production. Like most of Burgundy its soils are predominantly limestone and marl with clay and sand, near the 47th parallel its one of the northern most regions to produce premium red wine.

"My only regret in life is that I did not drink more wine." - Ernest Hemingway

FRANCE - BORDEAUX

Ringling the changes in Bordeaux, so you thought things hadn't changed much in France's most famous and largest wine region? Think again. There have been fundamental stylistic shifts in the region's wines over the last few decades. Thanks go in part to the simultaneous rise of the consultant and the wine critic (we're thinking of you, Michel Rolland and Robert Parker Jr). Their influence was – still is - massive, prompting an opulence in the wines not seen before. Who cares how these new super-ripe wines age? Not the public, certainly, who don't want to wait three decades to drink it. Yes, the region still lives and dies by the 1855 classification that ranks its top properties, but nearly everyone not at the top thinks this is now past its expiration date. And there's a growing number of earnest producers making laudable wines at artisan level, who are now farming with an eye on organics, and who revere the freshness and integrity that once made 'claret', as us Brits like to call it, so beloved.

"I can certainly see that you know your wine. Most of the guests who stay here wouldn't know the difference between Bordeaux and Claret." – Basil Fawlty

RHÔNE VALLEY

Did you know that there are vineyards along virtually the entire length of the Rhône River, from its source in the Swiss Alps to its mouth near Marseilles? The variety of wines is staggering, unsurprisingly. In wine terms, the valley is split into the northern and southern Rhône. The vineyards in the north, some of the oldest in France, are etched into the mountainside on narrow terraces at dizzying gradients, with the great majority of wine being made from the Syrah grape. The region's most famous wines are the deep-flavoured, long-lived reds of Hermitage and the generally more fragrant and delicate Côte-Rôtie. The southern Rhône, meanwhile, is more user-friendly (more boozy, too – we're looking at you, Châteauneuf-du-Pape). You can thank the openly fruity character of the Grenache grape, which rules here. And the change in scenery - it's the gateway to Provence, think olive trees, lavender and cicadas.
