

Edwardian Group London announces new General Manager of the May Fair Hotel

Edwardian Group London, has today announced Inderneel Singh as new general manager of the iconic May Fair Hotel.

Inderneel will be responsible for continuing the legendary high standards of luxury at the five star hotel and emphasising its position at the heart of London's most stylish district.

"I am thrilled to be leading such a capable team and I'm excited for the future. For me, this is an extraordinary chance to build on the great work that has been done by other members of the team, both past and present. Of course, I'll be bringing my own way of doing things to the hotel, but I think that's important for the hotel to stay fresh and competitive," says Inderneel Singh, General Manager of the May Fair Hotel.

The May Fair Hotel offers more than 400 luxury bedrooms, including 13 signature suites. In addition, there are 16 meeting and function spaces, the largest of which, the Crystal Room, can host up to 280 guests. The hotel also features the May Fair theatre and the May Fair spa.

Inderneel Singh says, "The May Fair Hotel has such a rich heritage, going back to 1927. We're particularly proud of our relationship with the film and fashion worlds and we intend to remain the official hotel for the British Film Institute Film Festival and London Fashion Week. I'd say for anyone who's not yet had a chance to visit, or hasn't been to see us for a while, come by, we've got so much to offer here – not just the rooms and suites, but our impressive Cigar Lounge and popular May Fair bar too."

Prior to taking on the role of General Manager, Inderneel was Edwardian Group London's Corporate Development Manager. Whilst in this role, Inderneel successfully managed the planning of the new Leicester Square site, recently approved by Westminster City Council. Inderneel is also a qualified Chartered Accountant.

Inderneel replaces the outgoing Anthony Lee, who joined the May Fair Hotel in 2010.

The May Fair Hotel is a part of Edwardian Group London.
