INTRODUCTION

At Oncore, we acknowledge the Gadigal people, the traditional custodians of this land in which we have gathered. We pay respect to the Elders of the past, present and emerging.

The wine list at Oncore by Clare Smyth embraces everything Clare and the team love about wine from old, fine and rare to young, new and exciting. Our cellar is home to wines that are already firm favourites, vintages to return to time and time again as well as a host of fresh discoveries waiting to be tried; an authentic reflection on the wine world today.

Our team are entirely dedicated to exceptional wine and hope to offer a list that excites every palette. We are proud of the depth that has been meticulously built into the collection, matching Oncore's food and service with our shared dedication to excellence.

We appreciate the uniqueness of every bottle and wish to commend the hard work of their production. We strive to do justice to all those involved from the growers, to the winemakers and the barrel crafters. Many dedicated hands were responsible in bringing these wines to our door, and to your table.

To see the vineyards, feel the soil, taste the grapes, and talk to the producers - this is something you can't find in wine books. We travel regularly to wine regions and as sommeliers, we are the connection between the winemaker and the consumer. Each opportunity for our guests to experience the provenance of individual wines fuels our enthusiasm and gives us the chance to share our passion for wine.

We aim to provide the highest level of service but without the pretence. We want you to have fun, and we want to make it personal, tailored to you and your time with us.

It doesn't matter if you don't know your Cabernet from your Carignan. In fact, that's even more exciting for us because we then get to act as your guide and hopefully share something new.

CHAMPAGNE

SPARKLING

CHAMPAGNE

We love our Champagne at Oncore! Quite simply, because Champagne continues to be the envy of the world's sparkling wine producers. Ok, so Champagne sales have taken a hit from Prosecco recently, while English sparkling wine producers are rightly shouting about their usefully high acidity levels as the Champagne region warms up. But Champagne still rules, especially when it comes to ageing. That said, the big Champagne houses are being challenged by a new wave of producers who prefer to wear a pair of jeans than a sharp suit; who might farm organically, and focus on single vineyard and single grape variety wines. Cue the Champagne grower. The rise of the grower-producers has revolutionised this generation in the region. Top Champagne is no longer the exclusive realm of the big players. While single vineyard is the new vanguard, with deliciously complex cuvées from trailblazing terroiriste growers taking the wine world by storm.

"I only drink Champagne when I'm happy, and when I'm sad. Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone. When I have company, I consider it obligatory. I trifle with it if I am not hungry and drink it when I am. Otherwise I never touch it – unless I'm thirsty." Lily Bollinger

BURGUNDY - CÔTE DE BEAUNE

Getting your head around Burgundy's classification system, Ok, deep breath. There are general appellations, such as Bourgogne Blanc, and regional appellations, such as Chablis. Village wines come next, naming the best villages, such as Meursault. Next up is premier cru, the second-best vineyard within each village – the village comes first on the label, like Meursault-Charmes. Finally, grands crus, the top wines in Burgundy, from the top vineyards.

"I feel sorry for people who don't drink. When they wake up in the morning, that's as good as they're going to feel all day." - Frank Sinatra

Stretching from Dijon to just south of Nuits-St.Georges the Côtes de Nuits is Burgundy's premier area for red wine production. Like most of Burgundy its soils are predominantly limestone and marl with clay and sand, near the 47th parallel its one of the northern most regions to produce premium red wine.

FRANCE - BORDEAUX

Ringling the changes in Bordeaux, so you thought things hadn't changed much in France's most famous and largest wine region? Think again. There have been fundamental stylistic shifts in the region's wines over the last few decades. Thanks go in part to the simultaneous rise of the consultant and the wine critic (we're thinking of you, Michel Rolland and Robert Parker Jr). Their influence was – still is - massive, prompting an opulence in the wines not seen before. Who cares how these new super-ripe wines age? Not the public, certainly, who don't want to wait three decades to drink it. Yes, the region still lives and dies by the 1855 classification that ranks its top properties, but nearly everyone not at the top thinks this is now past its expiration date. And there's a growing number of earnest producers making laudable wines at artisan level, who are now farming with an eye on organics, and who revere the freshness and integrity that once made 'claret', as us Brits like to call it, so beloved.

"I can certainly see that you know your wine. Most of the guests who stay here wouldn't know the difference between Bordeaux and Claret." – Basil Fawlty

RHÔNE VALLEY

Did you know that there are vineyards along virtually the entire length of the Rhône River, from its source in the Swiss Alps to its mouth near Marseilles? The variety of wines is staggering, unsurprisingly. In wine terms, the valley is split into the northern and southern Rhône. The vineyards in the north, some of the oldest in France, are etched into the mountainside on narrow terraces at dizzying gradients, with the great majority of wine being made from the Syrah grape. The region's most famous wines are the deep-flavoured, long-lived reds of Hermitage and the generally more fragrant and delicate Côte-Rôtie. The southern Rhône, meanwhile, is more user-friendly (more boozy, too – we're looking at you, Châteauneuf-du-Pape). You can thank the openly fruity character of the Grenache grape, which rules here. And the change in scenery - it's the gateway to Provence, think olive trees, lavender and cicadas.
