Wedding Stories at

PULLMAN BUNKER BAY

KENNY & JANE, JANUARY 2023

Tell us about your journey together, from how you met, to what the proposal was like!

We met in 2017 when Jane was finishing her Masters in Perth and I, working FIFO at the time, was looking for a housemate. A friend of Jane's moved in, and naturally a lot of events were shared at the house leading to a romantic night where everyone fell asleep before us.

The two of us stayed up all night talking, laughing, and sharing a few too many bottles of wine. Soon after, we spent every night together and naturally grew closer and closer. Even when Kenny was away for work, we'd facetime for hours, never getting bored of each other's company.

Then, during a surprise helicopter trip over Bunker Bay, Ben pointed out a pod of whales swimming in the ocean. I looked back at him with joy and that's when I got the craziest butterflies of my life — he presented the ring and asked me to be his wife...

What (besides the obvious 'I do') was your favourite part of your wedding?

Our favourite part of the wedding was having two cultures come together so seamlessly and having our closest family and friends present from all over the world.

Would you recommend Pullman Bunker Bay to other people getting married?

ABSOLUTELY! - We could not recommend them more. The venue was perfect, especially the food! The staff were also incredibly accommodating and friendly. We are looking forward to returning to Pullman Bunker Bay for our 1-year anniversary in 2024.
