STEIN ERIKSEN LODGE

Stein Eriksen Lodge has been creating perfect moments for over 40 years. The Lodge is uniquely nostalgic and full of class, finished with the finest amenities available. The Lodge is well regarded as an authentic mountain ski lodge and premier luxury resort, providing world-class service year-round in the heart of the picturesque Wasatch Mountains.

Its name is derived from Norwegian champion ski racer Stein Eriksen, known for his elegance, grace, and charisma on and off the slopes, all traits the Lodge strives to mirror.

As Utah's longest-serving Forbes Five-Star hotel and spa, you can expect unparalleled service, award-winning dining, opulent spa treatments, and breathtaking scenery—a quintessential Park City destination.

For the wedding of your dreams,
THERE'S ONLY STEIN.

EXECUTIVE CHEF ZANE HOLMQUIST

A graduate of the Culinary Institute of America, Executive Chef Zane Holmquist is one of the most accomplished culinary experts the state of Utah has ever produced. As a Park City native, Chef Zane brings his love for the mountains, and his knowledge of local produce to create an exquisite culinary experience. Chef oversees all restaurant operations, menu development, and event dining. During wedding tastings, he loves to get to know each couple and assist them with cultivating a personalized menu that fits their wedding vision, both in taste and aesthetics.

KENNA SCHOW CATERING SALES MANAGER

With over nine years of experience managing and planning events, Catering Sales Manager Kenna Schow brings great insight and expertise to our wedding and event team. She has a passion for producing incredible weddings that will be remembered year after year. Her favorite part of each wedding is the 'Grand Reveal' of the Stein Ballroom. Being a Utah native, Kenna has a deep love for the outdoors. When not working on legendary events, she enjoys hiking, kayaking, camping, and any creative project!
