GOODWOOD PARK HOTEL ATTAINS GSTC CERTIFICATION

Another milestone achieved for hospitality icon celebrating its 125th anniversary

A Proud Milestone for GSTC-Certified Goodwood Park Hotel

Singapore, August 2025 – Singapore’s distinguished heritage hotel, Goodwood Park Hotel, is proud to announce its Global Sustainable Tourism Council® (GSTC) certification awarded in July 2025. This milestone follows the Green Mark Gold Award awarded by Building and Construction Authority (BCA) in 2021, which recognises buildings that have achieved a high level of environmental sustainability in its design, construction and operation.

The GSTC certification is regarded as the most trusted benchmark for sustainability and excellence in the travel and tourism industry worldwide, demonstrating that the hotel is committed to sustainable tourism through a credible, impartial and rigorous assessment. A dedicated team within the hotel was set up to spearhead the implementation of green initiatives to meet the GSTC criteria¹ that were created to provide a common understanding worldwide of “sustainable tourism” and are the minimum that any tourism business should aspire to reach. More information on GSTC can be found here.
