OUR MEAT

LOCAL SUPPLIER, LOCAL QUALITY

Do you remember the days when everyone bought their meat from the local butcher?

Do you remember the quality of the meat and the helpful advice from staff?

We remember those days fondly – and our aim is to bring that shopping experience back to the homes and establishments of Buckingham.

With the growing need for consumers desire to know more about traceability, husbandry, and animal welfare, we pride ourselves with only purchasing stock from local farms, local suppliers or Smithfield meat market where we can trace all meat back to source.

The Buckingham Butcher is a trade counter that's open to the public, caterers, public houses, restaurants, or any establishment that requires meat.

And with over 100 years' experience, our butchers will provide you with the right cut of meat.

Trevor, the founder of The Buckingham Butcher, revolutionised local butchery in Buckingham nearly a decade ago.

His unwavering commitment to sourcing the finest cuts from local farms and personally selecting the best meats has cemented Trevor's reputation among top restaurants and discerning customers.

Trevor's approach ensures sustainability, traceability, and exceptional animal welfare, offering unmatched quality from farm to plate.

As proud partners, we invite you to experience this dedication firsthand at Trevor's shop on Winslow High St which is managed by his son, and we urge you to support an exemplary local family business.
