

Located on the southern Spanish Costa del Sol, in the heart of the “Golden Mile” and only five minutes to Old Town Marbella and Puerto Banús, the Marbella Club Hotel · Golf Resort & Spa enjoys 325 days of sunshine. .

Open year round, the renowned Marbella Club Hotel, one of the “The Leading Hotels of the World,” was once the private residence of Prince Alfonso von Hohenlohe and features 114 luxury bedrooms and suites and 16 Andalusian-style villas spread along 42.000 square metres (452.083 sq. ft.) of lush subtropical garden.

Amenities and activities include three outdoor heated swimming pools, a fitness centre, 10 tennis and 4 paddle courts at sister hotel (only a 5–10 minute beach walk away), a 5.000 sq. metre Kids Club, a shopping gallery, an equestrian centre and a Dave Thomas-designed 18-hole golf course within the hills of Benahavis. The hotel also features eight bars and restaurants including the famous Beach Club Buffet and the legendary Grill Restaurant.

Inspired by the profound benefits of the Mediterranean Sea, Wellness at Marbella Club is based on four basic elements to inspire guests to find the best version of themselves: Nutrition, Fitness, Spa and Wellbeing. Led by a multidisciplinary team specialized in Holistic therapies and treatments, our programmes are reinforced by the Holistic Studio and the Thalasso Spa.

RESTAURANTS & VENUES

El Patio	As beloved by in-the-know locals as our seasoned guests, spend time outside all year round in this magical sanctuary. Come for a coffee while you read the paper, meet for lunch, aperitifs, or after-hours cocktails and Galician oysters and dine among the jasmine scented vines.
	Dress code: casual
El Grill	Our master of the grill has followed in the footsteps of his father, Roque, to offer time-tested recipes brought to life over a crackling fire. Legendary silver service, the twinkle of the decades-old candles on the outdoor terrace, and the stir of the soaring pines complement the finest, heart-warming cuisine.

MC Beach	MC Beach takes a cue from Malaga’s traditional chiringuitos, laid-back fish and seafood restaurants right on the beach. Brushed in blues and whites, it’s where tables buzz with generations of locals for sangria-fuelled lunches over sardinas al espeto. The perfect seaside siesta to sunset-watching address.
	Dress code: casual
Beach Club	Our sun-splashed Beach Club joyful look takes its inspiration from the historical ‘palapa’ roof and reminiscent of 1950’s Acapulco, once the playground for the world’s elite – and our Prince Alfonso von Hohenlohe. The palette of the Beach Club is awash with hues of minty, tropical greens and vibrant corals with reimagined al fresco hangout areas for guests in the lounge, bar and pool to while away the day.

Rudi’s	Celebrate the Marbella Club’s enduring sociable spirit with champagne or a cocktail in our elegant homage to our cherished Count. Pause for tapas, a game of backgammon, and a fireside nightcap over live music in this timeless Bohemian lounge.
	Dress code: elegant
Summer Bar	To the tinkle of the piano and sounds of the nightly live music, guests are invited to kick off their evening or while the night away in the heady jasmine-scented orange grove of the eponymous Summer Bar, host to many an illustrious guest throughout the years and many a fable to tell.
	Dress code: elegant
Bodega	A show-and-tell-tribute to the wines on our menu, La Bodega tells the stories of both family-owned local wineries and rare, singular references alike. Guests can retreat to our private dining room for tastings or store their favourite vintages in the cherrywood library, complete with a bijou candlelit patio.
	Pre-booking is required.
El Olivar at the Garden Pool	For those in the know, this hidden gem is tucked away in the heart of the hotel where guests can enjoy an intimate pool setting and an easygoing and healthy lunch based on garden-inspired Andalusian fare created by our Wellness Chef Andrés Ruiz. The perfect daytime spot for thumbing a book or staying snug on a windy day.
