Summary

An icon on Scotts Road, Goodwood Park Hotel is housed in a uniquely designed building that dates back to 1900. Regarded as a distinguished institution in hospitality circles, the Hotel is also one of the most reputable pioneers of the tourism industry. Much of her original beauty has been faithfully restored and her majestic air artfully accentuated with fluted columns, delicate woodworks, decorative plasterwork and graceful archways. Through the years, she has gained recognition for her exquisite elegance, legendary charm and tradition of excellence, with her Grand Tower gazetted a national monument in 1989. The Hotel has five distinctive restaurants, each providing a unique dining experience, along with a deli, a bar, two outdoor swimming pools and a fitness centre. The Hotel also gained its well-deserved recognition in the MICHELIN Guide Singapore 2024.

Summary

Since 1977, Coffee Lounge has been a favoured haunt of Singaporeans and tourists, who enjoy its authentic local fare and international favourites. Housed in the prominent Grand Tower wing of the hotel which was gazetted a national monument in 1989, it was revamped in 2007 and now welcomes guests to classic and contemporary surroundings with the same stellar cuisine and service that have garnered many fans over the years. Perennial favourites like the local high tea buffet and Taiwan Porridge remain. The local degustation menus were also introduced then and quickly became popular with many locals and foreigners alike.
