3. Policy Statement

3.1 SDB is committed to maintain the highest standards of ethics and integrity in the way we do business. As such, SDB Personnel must never, directly or through intermediaries, offer or promise improper financial or other advantage in order to obtain or retain a business or other advantage from a third party, including SDB Business Associates. Similarly, SDB Personnel must not accept any such advantage in return for any preferential treatment of a third party. We also expect SDB Business Associates to adopt the same approach. Your relationship with SDB must reflect SDB’s ongoing commitment in doing business ethically and with integrity.

- 3.2 SDB recognises the compliance of all applicable laws and regulations, including the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009 (“MACC Act”) and its amendments, and the Companies Act 2016. To the extent you are governed by applicable laws and regulations which prescribe stricter standards or conflict with the MACC Act or the Companies Act 2016, you must comply with the stricter standards in the jurisdiction you are operating in.

4. Anti-Bribery and Anti-Corruption General Principles

- 4.1 You must not participate in any corrupt activity such as seeking or accepting a bribe to do or forbear from doing something to SDB’s detriment. Similarly, you must not offer or pay a bribe in return for a third party to do or forbear to do something improper, even if it is perceived to be to SDB’s benefit or advantage. Further, you must not abuse your position in SDB for personal gain.
- 4.2 Facilitation payments are similarly strictly prohibited as they are considered as bribes in Malaysia. In simple terms, facilitation payments are unofficial and improper payments made to secure or expedite a routine administrative function.
- 4.3 When you are being asked to bribe or is offered a bribe, you must immediately report the matter to your Head of Department or your contact person in SDB, as the case may be.
- 4.4 If you are found to have committed an act of bribery, both you and SDB could be charged for a corrupt offence under the MACC Act. It is therefore important to avoid the perception of offering or giving bribes, which are further elaborated below.

5. Gifts

For SDB Personnel

- 5.1 SDB recognizes that corporate gifts (both giving and receiving) is a legitimate way of creating goodwill, building strong business relationships and is common practice within its industry and business environment.
- 5.2 SDB allows for appropriate gifting and receiving of corporate non-cash gifts which are not lavish or excessive. Examples of cash equivalent gifts are coupons, vouchers, tokens that can be converted into cash or credits that can be exchanged for items of similar value.
- 5.3 You must however, ensure the corporate gifts are given openly and not secretly. You must further ensure the gifts are not given with an intention to illegally influence a third party to do or forbear from doing something to obtain or retain business for SDB.
- 5.4 If you receive cash, cash equivalent gifts or gifts that are expensive or lavish, you must return these gifts with a polite explanation note of the rules under this Policy. This is because cash, cash equivalent gifts or expensive or lavish gifts may be viewed as gifts capable of swaying your professional judgment to act with integrity and in the best interest of SDB and could be perceived as bribes. Even if you do not think your professional judgment will be affected, you should avoid the perception of offering or accepting a gift which may be seen as a bribe.
- 5.5 You must keep records of the gifts in accordance with SDB’s internal procedures.

For SDB Business Associates

- 5.6 You must not offer gifts, whether directly or indirectly, with a view to improperly influence SDB Personnel's professional judgment or decisions. You must also not accept gifts from SDB Personnel in order to do or forebear to do something improper for SDB's benefit.
