H2O life. style. resort

Long Bay Beach, Turks & Caicos Islands

Good For: Travelers who want it all—a boutique beachfront property, luxurious rooms, and plentiful activities.

Standout Features: The activities! From complimentary stand-up paddleboards, kayak, and Hobie Cat catamaran rentals to pickleball and basketball courts, there are endless ways to spend your days. World-class kite surfing, wing foiling, and kiteboarding with onsite certified instructors and full gear rentals are also available.

Pro Tip: Tour the island with the sunroof open, doors off, and wind in your hair in the resort's very own Jeep Rubicon, available to rent for a day of exploring!

Ponta dos Ganchos

Santa Catarina, Brazil

Good For: Seasoned vacationers looking for somewhere exclusive to explore.

Standout Features: The location! Nestled on a private peninsula on Brazil's Emerald Coast, with only 25 bungalows on 20 acres of lush rainforest, you'll feel like you've got the whole place to yourself! Not to mention, the surroundings are picture-perfect, with white sand beaches, crystal-clear waters, and rich, untouched nature.

Pro Tip: They say breakfast is the most important meal of the day, and at this resort, they take that seriously. No matter what time you wake up, breakfast is waiting, with natural fruit juices, yogurt made in-house, and fresh bread from the bakery.

Alma San Juan

San Juan, Puerto Rico

Good For: Travelers looking for a peaceful pied-à-terre right in Old San Juan

Standout Features: Housed in a 19th-century Hispano-Mediterranean style building nestled right in the heart of the old city center, you're surrounded by history. The location is excellent—directly across from the tree-lined Plaza Colón and steps from San Juan's historic 18th-century citadel overlooking the sea.

Pro Tip: Head up to Mar Y Rosa for stunning views of Castillo san Cristobal and fresh, local flavors at this rooftop restaurant helmed by James Beard award semifinalist chef José Mendín.

Amanpuri

Phuket, Thailand

Good For: Travelers looking for the ultimate zen getaway

Standout Features: The wellness offerings here are out of this world. Bespoke Wellness Immersions are three nights of total bliss, complete with a personalized nutrition plan, movement sessions, specialized therapies, and spa treatments to target your specific goals.

Pro Tip: Top off your day in paradise with a refreshing beverage from the juice bar or a handcrafted cocktail at The Sunset Terrace.
