

Hottest New Hotels For 2021

While 2020 may have been the strangest year for travel yet, it didn't stop new hotels around the world from continuing to pop up and open their doors to travelers.

Now that a sense of normalcy begins to return and international travel is on the horizon again, no doubt you'll be looking for inspiration on where to head off to. Let this list of the Hottest New Hotels, according to Tripadvisor travelers, be your guide. From a gorgeous seaside paradise in Santorini to a cultural art haven in Kyoto, these newly established boltholes are what vacation dreams are made of.

But you don't have to travel across the world to visit these stunning and chic places: three of the Hottest New Hotels for 2021 are here in the U.S.!

- #7: Emeline - Charleston, South Carolina
- #10: The Rockaway Hotel - Rockaway Park, New York
- #20: Rise Uptown - Phoenix, Arizona

This was a year of stiff competition, and the Best of the Best Awards only recognize less than the top 1% of hotels around the world, so to be recognized – especially in a year like this where travel was so altered – is a massive achievement.
