[Singapore, 13 July 2026] As Mid-Autumn celebrations continue to evolve, today's festive gatherings are no longer defined solely by tradition, but by meaningful moments shared over beautifully crafted experiences. Embracing this shift, Grand Park City Hall and Tablescape Restaurant unveils The Grand Heritage Mid-Autumn Collection, a contemporary interpretation of Mid-Autumn gifting and indulgence that celebrates timeless traditions through refined pastry craftsmanship and modern flavours.

Leading this year's collection is the Moonlit Dessert Garden, an elegant dessert experience designed to redefine festive gifting for the modern palate. Thoughtfully curated as a luxurious centrepiece for celebrations, it offers an elevated alternative to traditional mooncake boxes while remaining rooted in the spirit of reunion. Complementing this hero creation are the return of Tablescape's sought-after Mao Shan Wang Durian Snowskin Mooncakes, crafted for discerning durian lovers, alongside a curated selection of heritage-inspired Baked Mooncakes that honour the timeless flavours of the season.

A Moonlit Harvest of Handcrafted Delights

This year, Tablescape presents a refreshed edition of its Moonlit Dessert Garden ($88+), reimagined with an all-new selection of handcrafted desserts designed for modern celebrations and sophisticated gifting.

Moonlit Dessert Garden ($88+)

Inspired by the beauty of an autumn garden beneath the full moon, the collection brings together six handcrafted desserts that showcase Tablescape's refined pastry craftsmanship. Highlights include the floral Golden Osmanthus Bloom, indulgent Velvet Moon Caramel Noir, Apple Éclat, Praline Harmony, Rosée Lumière, seasonal macarons, and the exclusive Imperial Mao Shan Wang Mooncake. Beautifully presented and thoughtfully composed, the Moonlit Dessert Garden offers an elegant alternative to traditional festive gifting, perfect for sharing with loved ones or as a memorable corporate gift.

A Treat for the Durian Connoisseur

Returning by popular demand, Tablescape's signature Mao Shan Wang Durian Snowskin Mooncakes continue to delight those who appreciate the unmistakable richness of premium Mao Shan Wang durian.

Prepared in-house by Head Chef Ethan Tang, each delicate snowskin mooncake is filled with premium Mao Shan Wang durian wrapped in a soft handmade snowskin, creating a luxurious yet balanced indulgence that has become a seasonal favourite among discerning durian lovers. Perfect for those seeking a contemporary Mid-Autumn indulgence, the Snowskin Durian Decadence Box (Box of 8, $88+) celebrates the bold character of Mao Shan Wang while offering a refined interpretation of one of Singapore's most beloved festive treats.

Timeless Classics, Thoughtfully Refined

Complementing the contemporary offerings are the newly-launched Baked Mooncakes, crafted with premium ingredients and reduced sweetness to deliver a lighter, more balanced indulgence while honouring the timeless flavours of the festival. Halal-certified and presented in elegantly designed gift boxes, the collection is thoughtfully created for both personal and meaningful corporate gifting.

The collection will feature four classic varieties, including the White Lotus Paste Wu Ren, inspired by Tablescape's signature Florentines and crafted with pecans, sunflower seeds and a medley of premium nuts for added texture and depth. The Golden White Lotus Paste with Melon Seeds offers delicate sweetness balanced with crisp melon seeds, while the much-loved Lotus Paste with Single Yolk and Lotus Paste with Double Yolk remain enduring festive favourites that have long been synonymous with Mid-Autumn celebrations.

"Mid-Autumn traditions continue to hold a special place in our hearts, but the way we gather and celebrate has evolved over the years. With this year's collection, we wanted to honour these cherished customs while introducing new experiences that resonate with today's palate.
