WHO ARE WE?

OVERVIEW

What?

Cradle Mountain Hotel is a 4* property in alpine woodland on the edge of the Cradle Mountain – Lake St. Clair National Park. We boast three room types, all conveniently under one roof, alongside the award-winning Altitude Restaurant + Lounge Bar. Also on site is the Cradle Mountain Wilderness Gallery – a showcase of wilderness-inspired art.

Where?

Cradle Mountain Hotel is in Tasmania's north west highlands, 2 hours and 15 minutes from Launceston and just under 1 hour and 30 minutes from Devonport.

WHY?

Guests of Cradle Mountain Hotel enjoy everything from exploring local trails to simply doing nothing, perhaps accompanied by a glass of Tasmanian pinot noir by a roaring log fire. We're here to provide a rest stop on a tour of Tasmania or a getaway in the wilderness.

WHo?

Cradle Mountain Hotel welcomes travellers from all over the world. We work with FIT clients, groups, functions, conferences and events. The Hotel is a particular favourite among locals for snowy winter getaways.
