Franciacorta, Lombardia

On the hills located between the southern shore of lake Iseo and the city of Brescia began the origin of the most authentic Italian bubbles. Franciacorta is a rich, sophisticated and complex sparkling wine made using the traditional method.

FRIZZANTI - SPARKLING WINES

Champagne

A Champagne winemaker's goal is to achieve complexity, and the most desirable notes of brioche and toasted bread. Refreshing acidity is balanced by a secret sweet recipe called "liqueur d'expédition". Made using the traditional method, as is Franciacorta, this is Italy vs France's greatest competition.

2019	Castagna	Beechworth, VIC	170
------	----------	-----------------	-----

BIANCHI - WHITE WINES

Sauvignon Blanc

The grape gets its name from the French words sauvage (wild) and blanc (white). It is planted in many of the world's wine regions, producing in cooler climates, wines with noticeable acidity and "green flavours" of grass, green bellpeppers and nettles with some floral, such as elderflower notes. In warmer climates, it can develop more tropical fruit notes.

2021	Colterenzio Lafoa	Alto Adige	235
2021	La Tosa Valnure Rio del Tordo	Emilia Romagna	85

2023	Craggy Range Te Muna	Martinborough, NZ	95
2020	Domaine de Ladoucette Pouilly Fume	Loire, France	185

Sémillon

The Sémillon grape variety originates from the Bordeaux region in France. This variety is also grown in countries such as South Africa, USA, Argentina, Italy, and Australia (which is the second largest producer of this grape after France). Broadly speaking, Sémillon starts as a light, lemon-citrus young wine and blossoms into one with loads of complexity, showing nutty, toasty notes once aged.

2019	Petreto, Podere Sassaie	Toscana	135

Arneis

Arneis is a white wine grape variety originating from Roero north west of Alba city. It is a crisp and floral varietal, and has been grown for centuries in the Piedmont region.

2020	Dante Rivetti Briccodoro	Piemonte	95
2022	Castello di Neive Montebertotto	Piemonte	150

Carricante & Blends

The word Carricante refers to "loading up" the cart or the donkey! It is a one-zone variety, as it is only found on the volcanic slopes of the Etna. High altitude and volcanic soil create a unique wine style in the world.

2022	Girolamo Russo Nerina	Sicilia	185
2022	Graci Etna Bianco	Sicilia	105

The wine produced with Grecanico Dorato presents a strong straw-yellow color with clear golden traces. Its scent is strong, with clear floral traces of white fruits, apple, pear, pineapple, tropical fruits and bitter almond.

2018	Santa Maria la Nave Millesulmare	Sicilia	330
------	----------------------------------	---------	-----

Kerner

Kerner is a 1929 German crossing of Trollinger (a red variety Schiava) and Riesling. Introduced in northern Italy in Alto Adige in the 70s, it received the important denomination of DOC 17 years ago.

2019	Rudi Vindimian Vigneti Delle Dolomiti	Trentino	110

BIANCHI - WHITE WINES

Pigato & Vermentino

Pigato, indigenous to Liguria, is higher in acid with salty and herb-scented notes, while the Vermentino is more aromatic and richer in texture and is spread more between Sardinia and Tuscany areas.

2021	Lunae Bosoni Grey Label Colli Di Luni	Liguria di Levante	115
2022	Tenute Olbios Lupus in Fabula	Sardegna	125

2019	Wines of Merritt	Cookernup, WA	85

Vernaccia

It's rarely seen outside of Tuscany, and it is responsible for the region's only DOCG white wine, Vernaccia di San Gimignano. Floral notes, citrus fruit, and a dry, crisp quality dominate the flavor of Vernaccia wine. It's a full-bodied wine with medium to high acidity levels and a notable aftertaste that suggests minerals or almonds.

2021	Fugnano Vernaccia di San Gimignano	Toscana	85
------	------------------------------------	---------	----

Fiano

It is found in the south of Italy, most notably in Campania. Its best wine is the DOCG, Fiano di Avellino. Spicy, smoky and crisp white grape with aromas of apple with notes of honey.

2021	Pierluigi Zampaglione Don Chisciotte	Campania	130
2022	Unico Zelo River Sand	Riverlands, SA	80

Gewürztraminer

The Spiced Traminer or Traminer Aromatico, as we name it in Italy, has the pedigree of being one of the most aromatic variety in the family. Originated in the village of Tramin, that's where it gets the name from, this grape can sometimes show plenty of sweet fruit. Depending on style Gewürztraminer can also be enjoyed in a dry version.

2022	Colterenzio	Alto Adige	115
2021	Elena Walch Vigna Kastelaz	Alto Adige	320

Verdicchio

Straw yellow Italian white wine with bright golden reflections. Often displays a greenish tinge, which is why it was given the name Verdicchio. It has aromas of citrus fruits, peach, barrique, pear and apple with a tropical touch. When aged, it gives aromas of vanilla and toasted wood.

2021	Fattoria San Lorenzo Le Oche	Marche	110
2019	La Marca di San Michele Passolento Verdicchio Dei Castelli Di Jesi Riserva	Marche	180

Pecorino & Blends

A small, delicately pale grape with exceptionally high sugar content and tends to reflect the terroir without reserve. It's both sensitive and expressive, so it's a grape for a patient, dedicated winemaker.

Schioppettino is a dark-skinned grape variety native to Friuli-Venezia Giulia in the far northeastern corner of Italy. Having declined in plantings massively in the late 19th and 20th centuries, it was saved from extinction in the 1970s, and is now regaining the respect and recognition it once enjoyed. Most Schioppettino wines are medium-bodied, deeply-colored, aromatic on the nose and spicy to the palate.

Native to Valtellina Valley, Lombardia, Nebbiolo is thought to derive its name from the Piedmontese dialect 'nebia', meaning "fog"; it's considered to be a "terroir-expressive" variety, in that it picks up more of the earth, soil, and climate characteristics. It is also an old grape, first being referenced as far back as the 1st Century! Salute.

Barolo - Dott. Giuseppe Cappellano

A legend in Barolo and among artisanal growers throughout Italy Cappellano was one of the last of the region's great traditionalist winemakers and he was one of Barolo's most compelling personalities. In 1983 he banished all journalists from his cellar, unless they agreed to review his wines without scores. (He saw ratings as divisive among growers.) And he may have been the only person who, during his lifetime, made a Barolo from ungrafted vines.

Cappellano made fewer than 800 cases of Barolo per year. His tiny production quickly disappeared into collectors' cellars in Italy, Switzerland and Germany. As Antonio Galloni once wrote, "Cappellano's wines are impossibly hard to find, even in neighboring Alba."

Classic Winemaking

The Barolos that Cappellano made are classic "old-style" wines, marked by a haunting scent of dried roses and a hint of truffle.

He made two Barolos, both from the mythic Gabutti vineyard on Serralunga's best slope.

Two-thirds of his Barolo production was Barolo "Rupestris," from a parcel planted on grafted rootstock in the 1940s.

2001	Cappellano Barolo Rupestris	1795
2003	Cappellano Barolo Rupestris	1750
2007	Cappellano Barolo Rupestris	1600

His other Barolo was the mythic "Piè Franco," from a parcel planted on its own roots with Nebbiolo's "Michel" clone in 1989.

The ethereal delicacy of this great wine made Cappellano wonder if this is what Barolo tasted like before Phylloxera.
