Celebrate

Mid-Autumn Festival with TICHEN

帝城

Inspired by the legendary tale of the moon goddess

The Mid-Autumn Festival will be rolling by soon. The 15th day of the eighth lunar month is always celebrated joyfully with lanterns and, of course, mooncakes.

Authentic mooncakes have sweet fillings, either lotus seeds or red bean paste, but these days, they contain a variety of ingredients, with some rather imaginative creations.

Ti Chen's Mooncakes aren't just for a sweet indulgence, they also count as stunning gifts to your loved ones. Discover these delectable flavours curated by Chef Yau, be it with single egg yolk or low sugar preference, classic or modern flavours - there's something for everyone which will surely tantalize your taste buds.
