SOCAN & RE:SOUND FEE

If music is to be performed or played, a performing right license is required when renting a facility for a private function. This license fee is remitted to the Society of Composers, Authors and Music Publishers of Canada (SOCAN), as well as the Canadian Not-For-Profit Music Licensing Company (Re:Sound). Re:Sound, is dedicated to obtaining compensation for artists and record companies for their performance rights. In accordance with subsection 68(4) of the Copyright Act Tariff No. 6.B. SOCAN is a non-profit organization which, under the Copyright Act of Canada (R.S., C.55, S.1) is authorized to collect for the public performance of music in Canada. SOCAN distributes the money collected to Copyright owners in the form of a royalty. You are therefore required by federal law to pay a performing rights license under Tariff 8. These fees are approved by the Copyright Board.
