

Experience the Rustic Elegance & Historic Charm of The Lodges

The Lodges
at Gettysburg

The Lodges at Gettysburg is an elegant 63 acre private retreat nestled on one of the highest and most beautiful ridge lines in Gettysburg. The Lodges overlooks the hallowed ground where Union and Confederate soldiers fought and died in the defining battle of America's Civil War. The Lodges presents an ideal atmosphere for a meeting, retreat or charming social gathering.

The Lodges offers both indoor and outdoor space in the event your group would need space to gather. The Lodges offers customized menus for any occasion or dining in Gloryridge Tavern & Grill.

The Lodges is conveniently located ten minutes from downtown Gettysburg and Interstate 15 providing easy access to Harrisburg, Baltimore, Washington DC and Philadelphia. Our location provides a wonderful private atmosphere away from the hustle and bustle of a busy hotel environment.

Carroll County Regional Airport	(35 min)
Harrisburg International Airport	(45 min)
Baltimore Washington International Airport	(75 min)
