The Manager will act reasonably and take into consideration the cause and efforts of each resident to remedy the deficient cleaning identified.

Residents are responsible for keeping their rooms clean and tidy.

Keeping the Unit Shared Areas clean and tidy is the shared responsibility of all Unit residents.

PART THREE

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Licence

- a. The Manager grants the Resident a licence to use:
 - (i) the Room exclusively; and
 - (ii) where the Room is in a Unit, the Unit Shared Areas in common with other occupants of the rooms in the Unit; and
 - (iii) the Common Areas/Facilities in the Accommodation nominated by the Manager from time to time for shared use in common with other residents of the Accommodation;for the Term on the terms and conditions set out in this agreement.
- b. The Resident acknowledges and agrees that:
 - (i) the Resident occupies the Room as licensee and this agreement does not create in or confer on the Resident any estate or interest in the Accommodation; and
 - (ii) the Residential Tenancies Act 1987 (WA) does not apply to accommodation for students provided by an education institution.
- c. The Resident cannot and must not occupy the Room or any other part of the Accommodation until the resident has paid the:
 - (i) First fortnightly Residence Fee (and if occupation is delayed beyond the first fortnight, any subsequent fortnightly Residence Fees), in advance;
 - (ii) Administrative Fee;
 - (iii) Facilities Fee;
 - (iv) Activity Fee;
 - (v) Departure Fee, or for Apartments at Twin Dolphin Hall and St Catherine's College - the Premium Departure fee; and
 - (vi) Security Deposit (if applicable).

2. Shared Accommodation & Diverse Mix of Personalities

- a. The Resident acknowledges that:
 - (i) they will be living in a shared accommodation facility, with people from all walks of life, and amongst residents with diverse range of personalities, cultures and backgrounds;
 - (ii) the Manager does not take resident mix into account when allocating rooms to Residents; and
 - (iii) The fact that the Resident dislikes or does not get along with another resident accommodated in their Unit does not give the Resident the right to relocate to another unit or demand that the other resident be relocated.
- b. The Resident has taken the time to consider whether living in a shared accommodation facility is right the right option for them.

3. Residence Fee & additional charges

- a. The Resident must pay to the Manager the Residence Fee for the Room. The Residence Fee is to be paid in full on the relevant instalment date and the Resident must remain at least one instalment in advance at all times.
- b. The Resident acknowledges that the preferred method for payment of Residence Fees is by direct debit or in lump sum payments. If the Resident chooses to pay using a different method, the Resident must pay instalments in full before the relevant instalment date.
- c. Subject to clauses 15 and 16, the Resident acknowledges and agrees that:
 - (i) The Manager will not refund any part of the Residence Fee or any Resident Charges if the Resident vacates the Room before the expiry of the Term.
 - (ii) If the Residence Fee or any Resident Charge is not paid when due, then it may be deducted from any Security Deposit held.
 - (iii) If the Resident is a Curtin Student and the Resident does not pay the Residence Fee or any Resident Charges when due, then the Manager may cause Curtin University, on prior written notice to the Resident, to place a sanction on the Resident's university student account in relation to any amount owing. The Manager must arrange for the sanction to be cleared as soon as the Resident has paid the full amount owing and/or the matter is resolved.
 - (iv) If the amount of the Security Deposit is insufficient to pay any outstanding Residence Fee or any Resident Charges, or any other sum owed under this agreement, the Resident still remains liable to pay the balance owed.
- d. The Residence Fee includes all costs for the supply of utilities, including internet access for study purposes.
- e. The Resident must pay to the Manager on demand all Resident Charges in accordance with this agreement or as specified in the Part Two (Resident Charges Schedule):
 - a. The Upfront Fees and Charges listed in Part Two (Resident Charges Schedule) are mandatory fees.
 - b. Miscellaneous Fees and Charges listed in Part Two (Resident Charges Schedule) must be paid in full whenever the service or cost is incurred.
- f. The Manager may on-cost any transaction fees (credit/debit card surcharges, direct debit declined fees, default fees) or enforcement fees that are charged in connection to any payment made by a Resident pursuant to this agreement.

4. Security Deposit/Vacating

- a. The Resident must pay the Security Deposit before the Occupancy Start Date and before commencing occupation of the Room or any other part of the Accommodation, and during any further period in which the Resident may occupy the Room if they are not studying at Curtin. This requirement to pay a Security Deposit also extends to Curtin College, Curtin English and Canning College students.
- b. The Manager may at any time deduct from the Security Deposit any arrears of the Residence Fee, Resident Charges or any other amounts which may be owing pursuant to this Agreement.
- c. If the Manager makes a deduction from the Security Deposit during the Term in accordance with this agreement (including the costs identified at clause 4g), then the Resident must promptly make an equivalent payment to the Manager so as to restore the undrawn balance of the Security Deposit to the quantum required by this agreement.

- d. If the Resident is a Curtin student, and the Resident does not pay a Security Deposit, the Manager may, on prior written notice to the Resident, cause Curtin to place a sanction on the Resident's university student account in relation to any amount owing. The Manager must cause the sanction to be cleared as soon as the Resident has paid the full amount owing and/or the matter is resolved.
- e. If the Resident does not pay an account for any arrears of the Residence Fee, Resident Charges or any other amounts which may be owed pursuant to this agreement, the Manager may refer any outstanding fee to a debt collection agency. The debt collection agency will attempt to recover the debt owed by the Resident, as well as fees for the debt collection agency's engagement.
- f. If, in the Manager's reasonable opinion:
 - (i) The Room (including the Room's furnishings and furniture) is damaged; or
 - (ii) The Room following vacation by the Resident, is not left in a clean and habitable condition;
 - (iii) The Resident has damaged any other part of the Accommodation or furniture/equipment provided therein,

Then the Manager may deduct from the Security Deposit the costs of any cleaning, repairs or replacement of items damaged (Damage Cost). If the Security Deposit does not cover the total Damage Cost, the Resident must pay to the Manager any further amount required on demand. If the Resident is a Curtin student, the Manager may, on prior written notice to the Resident, place a sanction on the Resident's university student account. The Manager must arrange for the sanction to be cleared as soon as the Resident has paid the full amount owing and/or the matter resolved.
- g. The Manager must return any remaining balance of the Security Deposit to the Resident within 14 days of the Resident vacating the Room, or within a reasonable time after the Manager has finalised any cleaning, repairs or replacement of items required to the Room or the Apartment (which may exceed 14 days).
- h. The Resident acknowledges and agrees that the Manager is entitled to any interest earned on the Security Deposit.

5. Use of Room

The Resident acknowledges and agrees that the Resident must:

- a. only use the Room as a private residence;
- b. not assign, sub-let or part with possession of the Room to any person;
- c. cohabit with a partner, or allow any person to stay in the Room overnight, unless in accordance with clause 21;
- d. if a person is staying in the Room without authorisation by the manager pursuant to clause 21:
 - (i) immediately cause the person to cease occupying and leave the Room; and
 - (ii) pay to the Manager the Unauthorised Guest Fee in respect of the period of unauthorized use or occupation of the Room by that person;
- e. not use the Room or the Unit for any immoral or illegal use or in conjunction with any form of commercial activity (as determined by the Manager, acting reasonably);
- f. not allow any visitor or any other person to enter and/or remain in the Accommodation unless with the permission of the Resident and must ensure that all visitors comply with the terms of this agreement and the rules set out at clause 6; and
- g. pay for any damage (including cleaning required) to the Accommodation caused or contributed to by the Resident, any visitor or any other person at the Accommodation, with the Resident's express or implied permission.

6. Rules

The Resident must comply with:

- a. all reasonable rules in respect of the use of the Accommodation as notified to the Resident by the Manager from time to time;
- b. the Resident Handbook;
- c. the Student Charter;
- d. if a Curtin Student, the Curtin University Student Discipline and General Misconduct Rules;
- e. if a Non-Curtin Student, the student discipline and general misconduct rules of the institution they are enrolled with, and the rules identified at clause 6d – as if they were a Curtin Student.
- f. the By-Laws.

7. Resident obligations

The Resident must, at all times, during the Term:

- a. Meet the Eligibility Criteria;
- b. notify the Manager immediately if the Resident no longer meets the Eligibility Criteria;
- c. not cause any damage to the Accommodation and pay to the Manager on demand the cost of repairs caused by any act, omission or default of the Resident or the Resident's visitors;
- d. keep all floor coverings, walls, ceilings, windows (including glass), window treatments, doors and all furniture, fixtures and fittings and household equipment in or at the Room, the Unit, the Unit Shared Areas and the Common Areas/Facilities in the same condition as they are at the Occupation Start Date and as stated in the Property Condition Report;
- e. promptly report any damage to any part of the Accommodation to the Manager;
- f. keep all personal items wholly within the Room or in their allocated cupboard/shelf in the common shared areas;
- g. keep all sanitary and water services, electrical and gas installations of the Room and the Unit in good working order and not tamper with any of them;
- h. keep the Room and Unit in a clean, hygienic and sanitary condition, free from dirt, oil, grease and vermin;
- i. not litter or damage the gardens and grounds within and surrounding the Accommodation;
- j. notify the Manager in writing of any loss, damage or defect at or within the Room or Unit Shared Areas as soon as possible and no later than one day after the occurrence of any such loss, damage or defect;
- k. replace or, at the Manager's election, pay for all loss or damage to the Accommodation that is caused or contributed to by any act, omission or default of the Resident or the Resident's visitors;
- l. provide all assistance, as requested by the Manager in relation to any insurance claim in relation to the Accommodation or made as a result of the Manager exerting its rights under this agreement;
- m. permit the Manager to enter and inspect the Accommodation pursuant to clause 10;
- n. indemnify the Manager against any loss, liability, costs or expenses incurred or suffered by the Manager, arising from or in connection with any damage to the Accommodation or any loss of or damage to anything in or near the Accommodation, caused or contributed to by the Resident's act, negligence or default, or some danger created by the Resident;

- o. remove any obstruction referred to in clause 8(k) or 8(c) and if the Resident does not or is not capable of immediately removing the obstruction, allow the Manager to remove the obstruction at the Resident's cost without the Manager being responsible to the Resident for any loss or damage which may result during removal of the obstruction;
- p. notify the Manager immediately if the Resident's student status changes or if the Resident withdraws from or suspends their course of study, despite the Term and any Residence Fee paid in advance;
- q. Provide the Manager with an appropriate Emergency Contact; and
- r. give immediate notice to the Manager of any infectious illness occurring in the Room. If required, the Manager will arrange for fumigation and cleaning of the Room and the Apartment, which may be at the Resident's cost, if demanded by the Manager.

8. Prohibitions

The Resident must not, during the Term:

- a. do or permit to be done anything at or within, or bring to or keep anything at or within the Accommodation which may knowingly impact the conditions of, or increase the usual premium of any insurance policy providing coverage in relation to the Accommodation;
- b. do anything in or about the Accommodation which in the Manager's reasonable absolute opinion is noxious, offensive, audibly or visually a nuisance or which interferes with the orderly operation of the Accommodation, including without limitation, consuming alcohol, using illegal substances or smoking (including vaping and e-cigarettes, and smoking of medically prescribed substances) in the Accommodation or being in the Accommodation while intoxicated;
- c. interfere with, obstruct access to or overload the services supplied to the Accommodation or otherwise carry out works which interfere with the services;
- d. without prior approval from the Manager, use any method of heating, cooling or lighting in the Accommodation other than those provided by the Manager;
- e. use the facilities in or about the Accommodation for any purpose other than that for which they were intended;
- f. place anything in the toilets, basins, sinks or drains which they were not designed to receive;
- g. make alterations or additions to the Accommodation, or drive any nails or screws into or deface, or make holes in or otherwise interfere with the walls, ceilings, floors or woodwork of and in the Accommodation;

- d. damage to, destruction of or theft of any property or vehicle (including anything in your Room, Apartment or the Accommodation or in any vehicle parked in or nearby the Accommodation) however caused; and/or
- e. any damage, loss, injury or death except to the extent it is caused or contributed to by the Manager.

10. Manager's right of entry

The Manager and/or its authorised representatives and contractors may hold a key/card to access the Room and the Unit and may enter or provide entry to the Room and/or the Unit:

- a. immediately without notice to the Resident if, in the Manager's reasonable opinion, there is an

- emergency, which includes to protect the health or welfare of any person;
- b. without notice to the Resident, at a reasonable time during the day:
 - (i) to maintain, clean or repair the Room and/or the Unit;
 - (ii) to maintain, repair or alter the services;
 - (iii) to investigate or remediate any risk to the health, safety, welfare and wellbeing of any Resident; and/or
 - (iv) to investigate any allegation of a breach by the Resident;
 - c. with reasonable prior notice to the Resident, at a reasonable time during the day:
 - (i) to inspect the Room, the Unit and/or any vacant rooms within the Unit; and/or
 - (ii) to show the Room, the Unit and/or any vacant rooms within the Unit to prospective residents and/or their representatives.

11. Property Condition Report

- a. On the Occupation Start Date, the Manager will provide the Resident with a report detailing the condition of the Room and Unit Shared Areas (if any) as at the Occupation Start Date ("Property Condition Report").
- b. The Resident must review the Property Condition Report, and confirm its accuracy return one signed copy to the Manager within 2 days of receiving the report.
- c. If the Resident disagrees with any information contained in the Property Condition Report, then the Resident must note their disagreement in the relevant sections (with any supporting evidence attached) on at least one copy of the report before returning that copy to the Manager in accordance with clause 11b. The manager may either accept the disputed items or reinspect the relevant area to verify the accuracy of its initial assessment and correct its assessment if warranted.

If the Resident does not give a copy of the Property Condition Report back to the Manager within the timeframe described at clause 11b, then the Resident is taken to have accepted the report as a true and accurate description of the condition of the Room and Unit Shared Areas (where relevant) as at the Occupation Start Date. The Property Condition Report when signed by both the Manager and the Resident will be conclusive proof as to the condition of the Room and the Unit and the contents at the Occupation Start Date.

12. Breach by Resident and termination by the Manager

- a. The Resident is in breach of this agreement if:
 - (i) the Resident's student status changes;
 - (ii) the Resident withdraws from or suspends the Resident's course of study during the Term; or
 - (iii) the Resident breaches any rule set out in the Resident Handbook, the By-Laws, or any other Curtin University's statutes, rules, orders, policies and procedures as published and/or available on its website.
- b. If the Resident breaches this agreement, the Manager will give the Resident notice of the breach (Breach Notice). If the breach is capable of remedy, the Breach Notice will include a reasonable opportunity for the Resident to remedy the breach.
- c. At the expiry of any reasonable opportunity to remedy the breach contained in the Breach Notice or on reasonable notice if the breach detailed in the Breach Notice is not capable of remedy, the Manager may terminate this agreement by entering the Room and re-taking possession of the Room.
- d. The Manager may terminate this agreement with immediate effect if the Manager reasonably believes that the nature of the Resident's breach poses a threat to the safety of other occupants or staff at the Accommodation.

13. Consequences of early termination by the Manager for breach by Resident

The Resident acknowledges and agrees that upon termination of this agreement under clause 12:

- a. the Resident must peaceably and quietly deliver to the Manager vacant possession of the Room and each and every part of the Manager's property in it;
- b. any right the Manager may have against the Resident at law will not be compromised or prejudiced and the Manager may pursue the Resident for any loss or damage suffered, including unpaid Resident Charges;
- c. the Resident will indemnify the Manager for any liability or loss arising from, and any costs, charges and expenses incurred in connection with, any breach of this agreement by the Resident and any re-entry or termination of this Agreement by the Manager resulting from the breach; and
- d. the Resident may be referred for further consideration under the Curtin Student Discipline and General Misconduct Rules, if grounds for such a referral exist.
- e. The resident authorises the Manager to refer any matter to any other institution they are studying at, where warranted.

14. Early Termination by the Resident

- a. The Resident may request early termination of this agreement by submitting a written request for early termination with a minimum of two week's notice.
- b. The Resident must continue to pay the Residence Fee until the early termination date agreed by the Manager (Early Termination Date) and notified to the Resident (Early Termination Notice).
- c. On receipt of the Early Termination Notice and before vacating, the Resident must pay:
 - (i) an early termination fee equivalent to an additional 6 weeks of the Residence Fee (Early Termination Fee); and
 - (ii) all outstanding Residence Fee and Resident Charges for the period up to and including the date on which the Resident vacates the Room.
- d. The Early Termination Fee, any outstanding Residence Fee or Residence Charges cannot be deducted from the Security Deposit unless agreed in writing with the Manager.
- e. If the Resident vacates on the Early Termination Date and the Resident has paid the Early Termination Fee, the Manager will refund a proportionate amount of that Early Termination Fee if a replacement resident is found within 6 weeks of the Early Termination Date.
- f. If the Resident does not vacate on the Early Termination Date, this agreement will continue on its existing terms and conditions and will not terminate.
- g. Despite clause 3(c), if the Resident complies with all its obligations under this clause and under clause 17, following termination (where agreed by the Manager under this clause 14) the Manager will refund to the Resident the balance of any Residence Fee paid in advance to the Manager.
- h. Early termination of this agreement does not affect any claim that the Manager has against the Resident in respect of any unremedied breach of this agreement arising before termination.

15. Early Termination in Exceptional Extenuating Circumstances

- a. the Manager may (at its entire discretion) agree to early termination of this agreement if the Resident:
 - (i) provides the Manager with as much prior notice as practically possible of the Resident's request for early termination due to exceptional extenuating circumstances (Exceptional Request); and
 - (ii) provides supporting documentation to verify the Exceptional Request as reasonably requested by the Manager.
- b. If the Manager notifies the Resident in writing that the Manager agrees to early termination of this agreement following an Exceptional Request (Exceptional Early Termination Notice) termination will be subject to the Resident:
 - (i) vacating the Room within 10 days (or any longer period reasonably required in the circumstances for the Resident to vacate the Room) (Exceptional Termination Date); and
 - (ii) paying to the Manager before vacating:
 - (I) a termination fee equivalent to an additional 4 weeks of the Residence Fee (Exceptional Early Termination Fee); and
 - (II) all outstanding Residence Fee and Resident Charges for the period up to and including the date on which the Resident vacates the Room.
- c. The Exceptional Early Termination Fee, any outstanding Residence Fee or Residence Charges cannot be deducted from the Security Deposit unless agreed in writing with the Manager.
- d. If the Resident vacates on the Exceptional Early Termination Date and the Resident has paid the Exceptional Early Termination Fee, the Manager will refund a proportionate amount of that Exceptional Early Termination Fee if a replacement resident is found within 4 weeks of the Exceptional Early Termination Date.
- e. If the Resident does not vacate on the Exceptional Early Termination Date, this agreement will continue on its existing terms and conditions and will not terminate.
- f. Despite clause 3(c), if the Resident complies with all its obligations under this clause 15 and under clause 17, following termination (where agreed by the Manager under this clause 15) the Manager will refund to the Resident the balance of any Residence Fee paid in advance to the Manager.
- g. Early termination of this agreement does not affect any claim that the Manager has against the Resident in respect of any unremedied breach of this agreement arising prior to termination.

16. Termination due to damage or destruction

If during the Term the Room or the Building (or any part of it) is through no fault of the Resident damaged or destroyed, or any of the services disrupted, so that the Room or the Building (or any part of it) becomes, in the Managers reasonable opinion, unfit for habitation or use, then, the Manager may at its election terminate this agreement and on termination:

- a. the Manager will refund to the Resident the balance of any Residence Fee paid in advance to the Manager; and
- b. no party will have any right against the other, excluding in respect of any right or obligation owing prior to termination or any unremedied breach of this agreement.

17. Termination & yielding up

On the expiry or sooner determination of the Term:

- a. the Resident must vacate the Room and peaceably and quietly deliver to the Manager vacant possession of the Room and each and every part of the Manager's property in it;

- b. the Resident must remove all of the Resident's property from the Accommodation, leaving the Room and Unit Shared Areas in the same condition as set out in the Property Condition Report (except for fair wear and tear as explained in more detail in Part Two, under "Miscellaneous Fees and Charges" and "Repairs Maintenance and Cleanliness");
- c. the Manager may treat any Resident's property not removed as abandoned and deal with that property in any manner the Manager sees fit;
- d. the Resident indemnifies the Manager against any loss, liability, costs or expenses incurred or suffered by the Manager, arising from the Manager acting under this clause 17, or damage caused to the Accommodation by the removal of the Resident's property;
- e. the Resident must promptly return to the Manager all keys/access cards to the Accommodation;
- f. the Resident must pay the charges for the professional cleaning, by contractors appointed by the Manager, of the Room including the carpet in the Room and if the Room forms part of a Unit, the charges payable by the Resident will also include a proportion of the charges payable for the professional cleaning of the Unit Shared Areas as the Manager reasonably calculates; and
- g. the Resident must dispose of all rubbish from the Room and the Resident's rubbish from the Unit (including the Unit Shared Areas) appropriately and hygienically.

18. Re-location

- a. The Resident acknowledges and agrees that the Manager may at any time during the Term:
 - (i) on giving 7 days' written notice to the Resident, offer the Resident to relocate to permanent alternative accommodation within the Campus;
 - (ii) if at the Occupation Start Date or during the Term, the Room is not available for use as accommodation, offer the Resident to relocate to temporary alternative accommodation within the Campus or off-Campus;
 - (iii) if the Manager determines that a fire, critical incident or emergency has occurred, or that the Room is not suitable for occupation, offer the Resident to relocate to temporary alternative accommodation within the Campus or off-Campus;.
- b. If the Resident chooses to accept the offer for the alternative accommodation the Resident must continue to pay a 'residence fee' for the alternative accommodation at the following rates:
 - (i) in relation to permanent alternative accommodation at that usual rate of that permanent alternative accommodation; and
 - (ii) in relation to temporary alternative accommodation, either:
 - I. determined by this agreement if the usual rate for the alternative accommodation is either the same or greater than the rate determined by this agreement; or
 - II. at the usual rate of the alternative accommodation if that rate is lower than the rate determined by this agreement. If the Residence Fee has been paid in full in advance and the usual rate of the alternative accommodation is less than the rate determined by this agreement, the Manager will undertake a reconciliation and reimburse the Resident the relevant amount.
- c. If the Resident chooses to be relocated to permanent alternative accommodation, the Resident must on expiry of the 7-day notice period, peaceably and quietly deliver to the Manager vacant possession of the Room in accordance with the provisions set out in clause 17 and must enter into a new accommodation agreement with the Manager in relation to the relocated accommodation.
- d. If the Resident chooses to be relocated to temporary alternative accommodation, the Resident will occupy that accommodation on the terms of this agreement (to the extent applicable) and must comply with all reasonable directions of the Manager in relation to the relocation process.

- e. If the Resident does not within 2 days (except in the case of an emergency as contemplated by clause 18(a)(iii) in which case the time will be determined by the Manager acting reasonably) accept the Manager offer for alternative accommodation as set out in this clause 18, this agreement will be at an end and the Resident must promptly vacate the Accommodation in accordance with clause 17 and relevant clauses in this agreement.

19. Privacy

- a. Information about the Resident which may be collected by the Manager will include any information provided in accordance with this agreement or that is provided during the Term or provided as part of the application process, including access to the Resident's grades. If the Resident does not provide this information, the Manager may not be able to grant the Resident this agreement or continue to provide services to the Resident under this agreement.
- b. If the Resident is a Curtin Student, the Resident acknowledges and agrees that Curtin University may provide the Manager with personal information of the Resident (including but not limited to student status, academic performance, grades and results, and Curtin disciplinary matters), in circumstances where it considers that doing so is reasonably necessary to provide health and wellbeing support or academic and pastoral support to the Resident.
- c. The Resident acknowledges and agrees that the Manager may share personal information of the Resident with the Resident's nominated Emergency Contact and/or Guarantor which it considers reasonably necessary to provide financial, debt, security, medical, health and wellbeing support or academic and pastoral support to the Resident and/or confirmation that the Emergency Contact and Guarantor is willing to act as an Emergency Contact for the Resident. The Manager may share personal information with Curtin or any other person or organization if the Manager reasonably believes this is necessary to provide support where the Resident's health or wellbeing is in question.
- d. Curtin University may use personal information of the Resident as part of Student Misconduct investigations undertaken pursuant to Statute No. 10 – Student Discipline, of the Curtin University Act 1966 (WA) or Student Ombudsman or other Federal regulator investigations undertaken.
- e. If the Resident wishes to request access to any personal information which the Manager holds about the Resident as a result of information collection practices pursuant to this Agreement, the Resident may contact the Manager. If the Resident does request information the Resident must provide complete details about the particular information sought, in order to assist in the retrieval of that information.
- f. The Resident acknowledges that the Manager, its contractors and other project affiliated entities and their staff may use the Resident's personal information for the purposes of providing accommodation, academic research and services to the Resident under this agreement and for any purposes set out in the Resident Handbook. The Manager reserves the right to access and use photographic and video images of the Resident.
