BARTENDER SIGNATURE COCKTAILS

Each spirit, juice or bitters used in a cocktail is different and flavours only evolve as they are combined. That is where our bartenders come in. Each bartender is as unique as the ingredients we use; with their own experiences and personality influencing their craft. This is reflected in their cocktails most of all, and we invite you to get to know each of your bartenders through their own personal creations.

THE WHEELS ON THE BUS

by Axel

A blend of some of my favourite sprits, my signature will spin your world round and round, all night long. Taking you on a trip with a flow of rich flavours, savour each sip with its intricacies that evolve as you enjoy. 21

COTE D'AZUR

by Ruben

The inspiration for my signature was a romantic getaway to the South of France with my sweetheart. Every night we would sip on a beautiful blue cocktail reminiscent of this one while taking in the picturesque water views. One of my fondest memories, but sadly the original cocktail is not the only thing I left in France... 21

Vodka | Alize | Marionette Blue Curacao | Pineapple Juice | Sugar | Lemon | Whites

THE LONG FACE

by Harrison Clydsdale, The Ternary Head Bartender

A riff on the classic 'Angel Face' first appearing in the 1930s, this drink is more stern, strong like its namesake the Clydesdale horse. When I tried Ruby Wednesday's Harrison's Cut gin, matured in Maker's Mark barrels (my favourite spirit), the stars aligned and my signature was born. Why the long face? Because you haven't tried your new favourite nightcap yet. 21

THE TERNARY SPRING SPRITZ-AGANDA!

What could be better than relaxing in the sun on a warm day with a spritz in hand? I believe that there's no better way to welcome the warm weather than a bit of bubbly with a seasonal twist. These three cocktails capture the essence of Spring, with a delicious option for every palette.

by Senior Bartender Cooper Stormonth
