As the signature luxury property of Park Hotel Group, Grand Park Kodhipparu, Maldives has evolved into a global choice among Maldives resort lovers. Grand Park Kodhipparu, Maldives is also known for its business of caring and the resort's longstanding relationship with nature and the local community. One thing truly wonderful that was made possible by the seasoned management team is the first solar powerhouse in the island and the water management plant. These were fundamental footsteps that steered the entire workforce to take on a planet first path. Three years in a row the resort has received the prestigious Green Globe Certification for the commitment to preserve the eco-system and to operate in an environmentally regenerative way.

Since the opening, the resort has won numerous awards, accolades and become a brand that is borderless and inclusive, in every sense, welcoming guests from over seventy different countries the world over. It is no accident that the resort has maintained its grandeur for five years. The team works day and night to curate experiences that invigorate the curious minds of the travellers. The resort encourages travellers to slow down, catch the breath and be present in the abundance of nature and to synchronise the holiday with the natural rhythm of the island and its eco-system.

The 5th year anniversary celebrations were dedicated to the team members that are an integral part of the resort's success. Most of the team members have been with Grand Park Kodhipparu, Maldives over the years in true appreciation of the management's attention to employee care. The employee of the year Mr. Jahanvir Alam received a roundtrip air ticket to Dubai along with accommodation and other benefits in appreciation of his relentless service. Mr. Alam has been a member of Grand Park Kodhipparu, Maldives' team for over three years and his promotion to Senior Bartender at the Breeze Bar, coincided gloriously with the Employee of the Year Award.
