INTRODUCTION

At Oncore, we acknowledge the Gadigal people, the traditional custodians of this land in which we have gathered. We pay respect to the Elders of the past, present and emerging.

The wine list at Oncore by Clare Smyth embraces everything Clare and the team love about wine from old, fine and rare to young, new and exciting. Our cellar is home to wines that are already firm favourites, vintages to return to time and time again as well as a host of fresh discoveries waiting to be tried; an authentic reflection on the wine world today.

Our team are entirely dedicated to exceptional wine and hope to offer a list that excites every palette. We are proud of the depth that has been meticulously built into the collection, matching Oncore's food and service with our shared dedication to excellence.

We appreciate the uniqueness of every bottle and wish to commend the hard work of their production. We strive to do justice to all those involved from the growers, to the winemakers and the barrel crafters. Many dedicated hands were responsible in bringing these wines to our door, and to your table.

To see the vineyards, feel the soil, taste the grapes, and talk to the producers - this is something you can't find in wine books. We travel regularly to wine regions and as sommeliers, we are the connection between the winemaker and the consumer. Each opportunity for our guests to experience the provenance of individual wines fuels our enthusiasm and gives us the chance to share our passion for wine.

We aim to provide the highest level of service but without the pretence. We want you to have fun, and we want to make it personal, tailored to you and your time with us.

It doesn't matter if you don't know your Cabernet from your Carignan. In fact, that's even more exciting for us because we then get to act as your guide and hopefully share something new.

2022 Hiedler, Ried 'Thal', Grüner Veltliner, Kamptal, Austria

Established over 160 years ago, when the first vines were planted in this vineyard. Now run by fourth and fifth generations, the Hiedler family continue to farm authentic and classic wines emblematic of Kamptal.

2022 Domaine Alphonse Mellot, Sancerre, 'La Moussière', Sauvignon Blanc, Loire Valley, France

With roots tracing its viticultural heritage back to the 15th century, the Domaine has always been a beacon of quality in the region, highlighting the terroir of its origins, yet always elegant, discreetly herbaceous, with a beautiful weave of citrus, oak and salinity.

2023 Vasse Felix, 'Heytesbury', Chardonnay, Margaret River, Western Australia

Vasse Felix was the first winery established in the Margaret River in 1967, when Dr Tom Cullity set about testing the hypothesis of Dr John Gladstones that the region would be most suitable to cultivate wine in this now idyllic region. Now under the stewardship of Virginia Willcox, the wines continue to set a benchmark for the region. This Chardonnay is magnificent, full bodied yet bristling with acidity.

2022 Gaja, 'IDDA', Etna Rosso, Nerello Mascalese, Sicily, Italy

'IDDA' refers to Mount Etna, a Sicilian term of endearment and awe to the famous mountain. Here, legendary Gaja in conjunction with the famous local Graci family, produce this exquisite red from Nerello Mascalese showcasing an immense savoury and volcanic character.

2016 Chateau Chasse Spleen, Moulis-en-Médoc, Bordeaux, France

A leading estate in its appellation, this Cabernet Sauvignon lead blend is prized for its longevity, muscularity yet its perfumed elegance. It offers quintessential notes of cedar and smoke with dense fruit character.

2017 Royal Tokaji Wine Company, 'Nyulaszo' 1st Growth, 6 Puttonyos, Tokaj, Hungary

This is a benchmark producer of the noble wines of this region. This first growth, single vineyard wine is exceptional and just the 8th vintage produced this century, showcasing not only exceptional richness but lively acidity as well.

2022 Egon Müller, 'Scharzhof' Riesling, Mosel, Germany

The Egon Müller family has continuously farmed with 8 ha estate since 1797 and has consistently produced some of Germany's most exquisite Rieslings.

2018 Tyrrell's, 'Vat 1' Sémillon, Hunter Valley, New South Wales, Australia

With 160-plus years, the Tyrrell's have been a constant in the Hunter Valley. Vat 1 is Australia's most awarded white wine and is an icon of the industry for a very good reason.

2021 Domaine Olivier Merlin, Chardonnay, Pouilly-Fuissé, Burgundy, France

Olivier Merlin took on the family estate in 1987 after gaining experience in the Napa and Jura. The wines speak of terroir, offer exceptional flavour richness and balance.

2020 Massolino, Barolo, Nebbiolo, Serralunga d'Alba, Piedmont, Italy

A producer that falls into a small, elite group of producers that rarely disappoints. From high-altitude chalk hillsides of Serralunga d'Alba, the wine is profound and will be very long lived, showcasing all the requisite intensity, tannin and acidity.

2021 Henschke, 'Mount Edelstone', Shiraz, Eden Valley, South Australia

One of the oldest family-owned wineries in Australia dating back to 1868, the wines continue to grow and evolve every vintage. Mount Edelstone is an icon single vineyard wine, amongst the very best.

2019 Antinori, Vinsanto del Chianti Classico, Tuscany, Italy

Luscious, sweet and delicious. This magnificent producer is steeped in history and is nearly unrivalled.

CHAMPAGNE

We love our Champagne at Oncore! Quite simply, because Champagne continues to be the envy of the world's sparkling wine producers. Ok, so Champagne sales have taken a hit from Prosecco recently, while English sparkling wine producers are rightly shouting about their usefully high acidity levels as the Champagne region warms up. But Champagne still rules, especially when it comes to ageing. That said, the big Champagne houses are being challenged by a new wave of producers who prefer to wear a pair of jeans than a sharp suit; who might farm organically, and focus on single vineyard and single grape variety wines. Cue the Champagne grower. The rise of the grower-producers has revolutionised this generation in the region. Top Champagne is no longer the exclusive realm of the big players. While single vineyard is the new vanguard, with deliciously complex cuvées from trailblazing terroiriste growers taking the wine world by storm.

"I only drink Champagne when I'm happy, and when I'm sad. Sometimes I drink it when I'm alone. When I have company, I consider it obligatory. I trifle with it if I am not hungry and drink it when I am. Otherwise I never touch it – unless I'm thirsty." Lily Bollinger

BURGUNDY - CÔTE DE BEAUNE

Getting your head around Burgundy's classification system, Ok, deep breath. There are general appellations, such as Bourgogne Blanc, and regional appellations, such as Chablis. Village wines come next, naming the best villages, such as Meursault. Next up is premier cru, the second-best vineyard within each village – the village comes first on the label, like Meursault-Charmes. Finally, grands crus, the top wines in Burgundy, from the top vineyards.

"I feel sorry for people who don't drink. When they wake up in the morning, that's as good as they're going to feel all day." - Frank Sinatra

DOMAINE DE LA ROMANÉE-CONTI

Domaine de la Romanée-Conti (DRC) is widely recognized as the finest Domaine in the world.

Situated in the Côte de Nuits, on the Golden Slope of Burgundy, the remarkable history of the Domaine dates back to the 16th century. However 1232 is the year, when the former Abbey of Saint-Vivant in Vosne first acquired 1.8 hectares of vineyard, to become the heart of production.

With a focus on Grand Cru vineyards, owning more Grand Cru terroir than any other, this leads to a spectacular array of magnificent wines. Production is small further adding to the exclusivity and mystique of these wines.

There is something simply exhilarating about these wines.

FRANCE - BORDEAUX

Ringling the changes in Bordeaux, so you thought things hadn't changed much in France's most famous and largest wine region? Think again. There have been fundamental stylistic shifts in the region's wines over the last few decades. Thanks go in part to the simultaneous rise of the consultant and the wine critic (we're thinking of you, Michel Rolland and Robert Parker Jr). Their influence was – still is - massive, prompting an opulence in the wines not seen before. Who cares how these new super-ripe wines age? Not the public, certainly, who don't want to wait three decades to drink it. Yes, the region still lives and dies by the 1855 classification that ranks its top properties, but nearly everyone not at the top thinks this is now past its expiration date. And there's a growing number of earnest producers making laudable wines at artisan level, who are now farming with an eye on organics, and who revere the freshness and integrity that once made 'claret', as us Brits like to call it, so beloved.

"I can certainly see that you know your wine. Most of the guests who stay here wouldn't know the difference between Bordeaux and Claret." – Basil Fawlty

RHÔNE VALLEY

Did you know that there are vineyards along virtually the entire length of the Rhône River, from its source in the Swiss Alps to its mouth near Marseilles? The variety of wines is staggering, unsurprisingly. In wine terms, the valley is split into the northern and southern Rhône. The vineyards in the north, some of the oldest in France, are etched into the mountainside on narrow terraces at dizzying gradients, with the great majority of wine being made from the Syrah grape. The region's most famous wines are the deep-flavoured, long-lived reds of Hermitage and the generally more fragrant and delicate Côte-Rôtie. The southern Rhône, meanwhile, is more user-friendly (more boozy, too – we're looking at you, Châteauneuf-du-Pape). You can thank the openly fruity character of the Grenache grape, which rules here. And the change in scenery - it's the gateway to Provence, think olive trees, lavender and cicadas.
