BOW BUTTS PURVEYORS OF FINE WHISKIES SEATON HOUSE ROYAL BURGH OF ST ANDREWS

We bid you a hearty Scottish welcome to Bow Butts. In 1418, on the grassy area you can still see outside of our windows, Scottish archers first stood side by side to hone their skills with the longbow and compete for the Silver Arrow - a symbol of skill, strength and perhaps too, a fierce loyalty to the Scottish Crown. From the grand halls of Highland castles to the misty battlefields where clansmen defended their honour, archers played a vital role in Scotland's storied past. Even in St Andrews, a town famed for learning and legend, archery was practised with precision, its history entwined with the traditions of Scotland's nobility.
