SYDNEY WENTWORTH

Bonjour!

Where luxury
embraces timeless
elegance in Sydney

Welcome to Sydney's most iconic 5-star hotel, known as a hotel of the arts, perfectly located in the city centre, amidst the bustling business, shopping districts and iconic landmarks. The award-winning, world-class heritage-listed property combines French elegance and traditions with sophisticated comfort for a luxury escape without equal.

Sofitel Sydney Wentworth holds a very special and endearing place in the history of Sydney and Australia's tourism and hospitality industry.

Since it launched in its current location in 1966, Sofitel Sydney Wentworth has been synonymous with elegant accommodation and flamboyant events. The famous Wentworth Ballroom has hosted kings and queens, politicians and celebrities and whilst Sydney's skyline has changed dramatically since it opened its doors, the warmth of the Wentworth welcome, the genuine expression of hospitality, and the professionalism and dedication of the hotel's team has remained faithful to the hotel's finest traditions.

Indulge in Our Rooms & Suites

Home to 436 beautifully appointed rooms and suites, our iconic five-star hotel has been a cherished Sydney landmark since 1966, blending classic French art de vivre with contemporary sophistication.

Each Classic, Superior, and Luxury Room offers a serene retreat featuring the signature Sofitel MyBed™, indulgent Balmain Paris amenities, and elegant marble bathrooms designed for your comfort and relaxation.

For those seeking elevated indulgence, our Junior, Prestige, and Wentworth Suites present spacious living areas, sumptuous furnishings, and exclusive privileges including access to Club Millésime, where bespoke service and refined gastronomy await.

Whether you visit for business or pure indulgence, your stay promises grace, calm, and impeccable service in the heart of Sydney's vibrant CBD.

tilda

Where seasonal menus are finely crafted with Australia's local produce

FRESH. LOCAL. FLAWLESS.

The hotel's street or lobby level restaurant, Tilda, provides a casual yet elegant modern Australian dining experience. It combines ingredients like charcoal cooking and heavily incorporates Australian produce, particularly seafood, from both land and sea. The decor and service strive for sophistication without being stuffy, creating a sophisticated yet casual setting. There are roughly 110 seats available. Highlights of the menu include the robust local wine list, spanner crab ravioli, and zesty calamari.

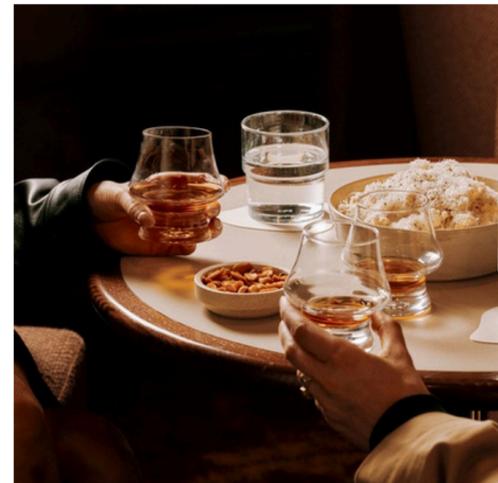

bar tilda

Discover whisky collections from around the world

WHISKEYS ALL SET.

Immerse yourself in a space where traditional drinking rituals are combined with Australian ingredients, flavours and nostalgic storytelling. bar tilda boasts an extensive spirits collection and a 80-strong Australian whisky library housed in a handsome armoire, evoked by the glamour and nostalgia of the 1960s - the era the hotel was launched. Mid-century glamour is embodied in the bar's signature Flora Martini, made tableside and poured into a bespoke glass. Other creations such as Dollars and Cents, a tropical drink featuring London dry gin, pineapple jam, pepper, macadamia, citrus, and lime oil commemorating Australia's 1966 currency change, and Lost At Sea, a tribute to former prime minister Harold Holt who disappeared at a Victorian beach in 1967, blending botanical vodka, tea tree, orange, lemon salt, and green apple, marry storytelling with innovation.

DELTA RUE

Every plate tells a story of heritage

FRENCH TECHNIQUE, VIETNAMESE SOUL.

Delta Rue is a French-Vietnamese restaurant that blends the flavours and atmosphere of both cultures. It has a dining area and a deck and is located on level 5. Using colonial French and Vietnamese design cues (murals, salvaged timbers, muted wallpapers, etc.), the décor draws inspiration from old-world Hanoi (Old Quarter). The menu includes items like rice cakes stuffed with meat, turmeric-roasted John Dory, and communal plates including herbs, spices, and a strong flavour. Additionally, Delta Rue serves a buffet and à la carte breakfast menu in the mornings that features local ingredients. The space is spacious and lively.

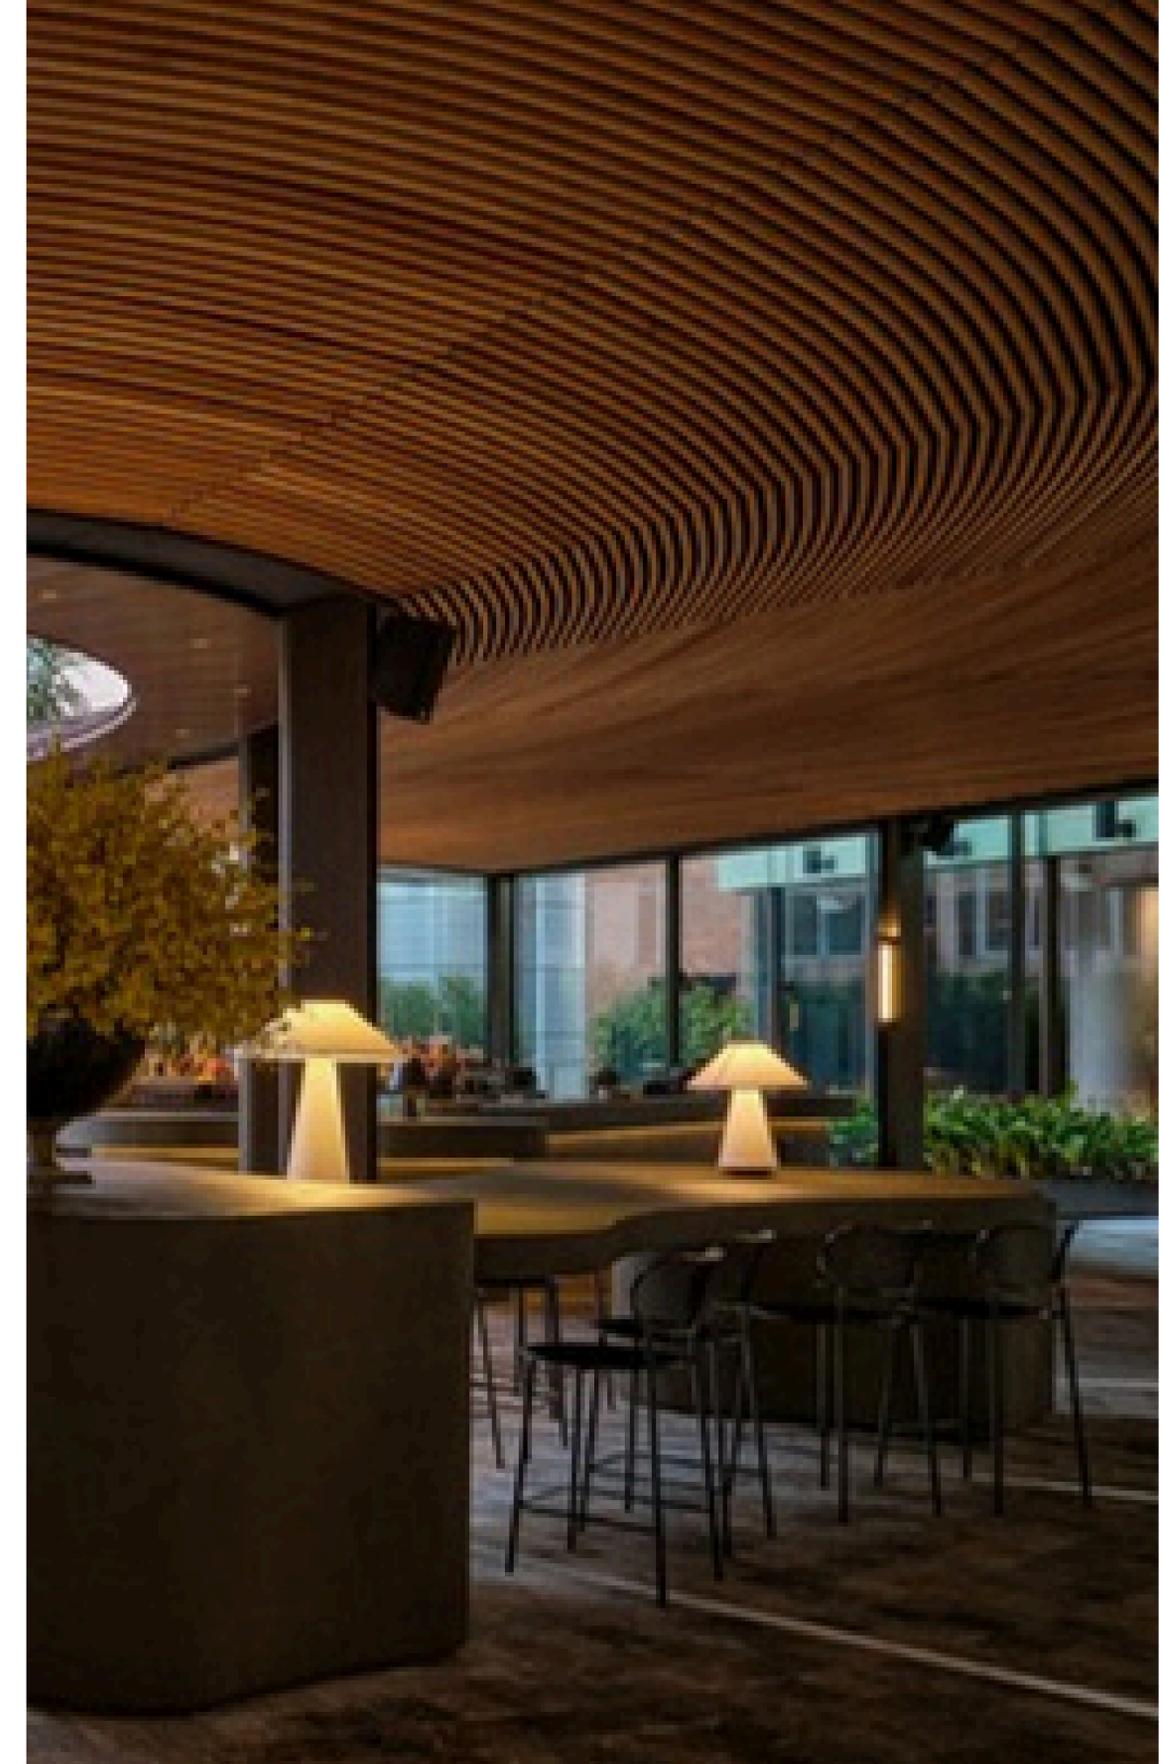

WENTWORTH BAR

*Break free from the city pace and unwind
in a rooftop sanctuary*

WHERE SKY MEETS SPIRITS.

The rooftop terrace bar and lounge area, Wentworth Bar, is intended to provide a sense of an elevated haven above the city. With plenty of sitting options for both casual drinkers and guests staying longer, it's spacious and features both indoor and outdoor seats, lush foliage, natural finishes, and design elements like a copper/glass canopy. The drink menu features easily drinkable and approachable wines, cocktails and bar snacks. It features DJ nights, which create a lively scene, particularly on Thursday and Friday evenings. The terrace's high capacity (about 250 people) and year-round use are made possible by its weather-resistant design.
