Craggy Range Sauvignon Blanc 2019 24

Marlborough, New Zealand

While Craggy Range has set the benchmark with their Gimblett Gravel's wines and their focus tends to be on grapes grown on New Zealand's North Island, this Sauvignon Blanc is from the world-renowned Marlborough region on the South Island. Lingering fresh herbs and ginger spice add some vibrant detail in your mouth. It is this attention to detail and the evenly textured balance that makes this a wine that will appeal to all.

Chablis 1er Cru Albert Bichot 2020 25

Burgundy, France

The Chablis 1er Cru Les Lys d'Albert Bichot Domaine Long-Depaquit is a single varietal Chardonnay white wine, a product linked to the Chablis 1er Cru origin. With an average age of 26 years, the 2-hectare plot benefits from the clayey-calcareous soils of Kimmeridgi with a high proportion of clay. This Chablis 1er Cru Les Lys 2015 by Albert Bichot Domaine Long-Depaquit is aged in stainless steel vats on fine lees for 12 months.

Gaja Rossj Bass 2017 45

Piedmond, Italy

Gaja Rossj-Bass is a refined Chardonnay with ample maturation possibilities, smooth and fragrant. In the glass it has a nice golden yellow color. The nose gives off a fine and captivating bouquet of citrus and flowers, with a hint of honey of considerable depth. The body is very elegant, with a strong character, with good acidity and a fresh and persistent finish. Perfect with starters of smoked fish, steamed seafood, grilled fish, but also with blue and aged cheeses.

RED

PSI “Dominio Del Pingus” 2019

28

Ribera del Duero, Spain

PSI is a fresh, tasty red wine by Dominio de Pingus winery in the Ribera del Duero, led by the famous agricultural engineer and oenologist Peter Sisseck.

The old vines are on average over 30 years old and are grown in micro-plots in the small winery Dominio de Pingus.

Maceration takes place in cement deposits, in order to achieve the maximum conservation of the grapes’ aromas. The fermentation is completely natural, without any yeasts being added. It is aged in cement deposits, oak vats and old French oak barrels of Pingus and Flor de Pingus. The barrel doesn’t dominate this wine, it just helps to refine it during its ageing.

Barolo Serralunga Ferdinando Principiano 2016

33

Barolo, Italy

The Barolo di Serralunga Principiano faithfully and authoritatively represents the characteristics of the well-known municipality, standing as one of the Barolos with the best value for money. Over the years, Ferdinando Principiano has become an absolute reference point for those looking for classic wines, faithful to the territory, and genuine, taking a path that is not obvious given the already rooted family traditions.

Tenuta Ornellaia “Le Serre Nuove”

40

Tuscany, Italy

Made with the same passion and attention to detail as Ornellaia, Le Serre Nuove dell’Ornellaia is a true “second vin”.

A blend of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc & Petit Verdot, it combines approachability and a depth of flavour with proven ageing potential.
