Kick Back in the Sun at These Luxury Getaways

H2O life. style. resort

Long Bay Hills, Caicos Islands

When you're planning a getaway to Turks & Caicos, you may think your vacation will start and end basking on a white sand beach, but at H2O life. style. resort, your trip is about to be a whole lot more exciting. While access to a private beach, two pools, and two hot tubs makes relaxation tempting, there's plenty of adventure on offer too. Get out on the water with complimentary kayak, paddleboard, and snorkeling rentals, or try your hand at something a little more high-flying: kiteboarding. The H2O Kite & Wing Academy offers private lessons with certified instructors and rentals for jet skis, e-foils, kitesurfing, and windsurfing. If you'd rather stay on land, there are still plenty of ways to have fun. Play a game of pickleball or tennis, rent a Jeep and go doors-off exploring around the island, or keep active with sunrise yoga and a 24-hour state-of-the-art gym. Plus, with luxurious residential-style accommodations ranging from one to four bedrooms, the whole family can be in on the action.

Booking an extended stay? Stay at least seven nights and enjoy a Two-Bedroom Oceanview suite and complimentary half-day boat charter with this special package.

Ace Hotel & Swim Club Palm Springs

Palm Springs, CA

For the adventurous at heart, Ace Hotel & Swim Club Palm Springs offers a perfect getaway in the awe-inspiring Sonoran Desert. With 179 rooms, each inspired by the outdoors, the hotel captures a modern, rugged aesthetic reminiscent of desert camping. Rooms feature flat-screen TVs, local artwork, retro-inspired radios, and organic latex mattresses, blending classic comforts with artistic nods to the desert wilderness. Explore the rugged beauty of Joshua Tree National Park with its iconic yucca trees, unique rock formations like Skull

Rock and Hall of Horrors, and breathtaking vistas from the Cholla Cactus Garden. Venture into the picturesque trails of Indian Canyons or enjoy top-rated golf courses nearby. After your desert adventures, relax at the desert hot springs or unwind on the hotel's outdoor stargazing deck. With two sparkling pools, an organic spa, and on-site gear rentals, Ace Hotel blends comfort and style with the rugged desert landscape for a truly memorable experience.

Amanruya

Bodrum, Turkey

Looking out over the Aegean Sea from Turkey's Bodrum Peninsula, part of the increasingly popular Turkish Riviera, dubbed by Conde Nast Traveler as the "Mediterranean's most glamorous hangout," lies Amanruya. The resort is a decidedly tranquil escape, set amidst the olive groves and cypress trees fringed by a private pebble beach. Spacious accommodations have rustic charm suited to refined tastes. Thirty-five standalone pavilions and pool suites are constructed from local stone and wood, each with private pools, shaded outdoor pergolas, and views of the gardens or sea. The interiors blend classic luxuries with Ottoman-inspired touches—marble floors, rain showers, and four-poster king beds meet dark wood ceiling beams, charcoal braziers, and kilim, traditional handwoven rugs. Enjoy a welcome amenity of local wine, fruit, and homemade Turkish Delight from your cushioned daybed, or make your way over to one of the resort's dining destinations for fresh, local Mediterranean fare and international cuisine. Need a reason to stay an extra night in Bodrum? Score one complimentary night, daily breakfast, dining credits, and return airport transfers when booking 5 nights or more.

'Alohilani Resort Waikiki Beach

Honolulu, HI

Located steps away from iconic Waikiki Beach, Alohilani Resort Waikiki Beach offers spacious and comfortable accommodations, a wide range of family-friendly activities, and a variety of delicious dining options. There are two restaurants from Iron Chef Masaharu Morimoto—a signature Japanese restaurant and a casual ramen spot—as well as a locally owned coffee shop, an Instagrammable pool bar, and one of the best buffets in Waikiki. Take a dip in the stunning infinity pool, explore the island's rich culture and history, gaze in awe at the three-story saltwater Oceanarium, home to more than a thousand Hawaiian marine species, or simply unwind and enjoy the beautiful scenery.
