FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

London, September 10th, 2014

ANNOUNCING THE FORTHCOMING FILM SCREENING hosted by The Bright Young Things Film Club presented by CIROC Ultra Premium Vodka at The May Fair Hotel.

On Wednesday October 8th, 2014, BYT presents the award-winning documentary The Dog; directed by Allison Berg and Frank Keraudren, this New York Times Critics Pick took an extraordinary 10 years to make. The film's subject, the late John Wojtowicz—and his attempted robbery of a Brooklyn bank to finance his male lover's sex-reassignment surgery—was immortalised by Al Pacino in the Academy Award-winning film Dog Day Afternoon (1975). "Berg and Keraudren's film is driven by Wojtowicz himself, making for one the most remarkable retellings of someone's life caught on camera in recent years," says Daniel Pratt of Exclaim. Both hilarious and heart wrenching at turns, the film, is, in the words of critic Matt Zoller Seitz editor-in-chief of rogerebert.com, "A humbly extraordinary film." Award-winning directors Alison and Frank will participate in a live via Skype Q&A directly following the film screening.

The evening takes off with cocktails provided by CIROC Ultra Premium Vodka. Guests are served ice cream by Green & Black's as they enter the screening room and met with goody bags packed with Propercorn and UNOCO raw coconut water. Following the screening, the May Fair Hotel's Quince Salon plays host to an exclusive post-event after party—a place for like-minded creative Londoners to engage and interact with one another, while enjoying more Ciroc ultra premium vodka drinks and delectable snacks courtesy of Metcalf's Food Company.
