

On Friday, March 24 special guests were afforded the opportunity to check out the Jamaica Pegasus' newly revamped pool bar, lounge and garden. Set on the east side of the 17-storey, 300-room property, the mosaic-tiled pool was the centre of attention as attendees sipped cocktails from the pool bar which now features a Jacqueline Hendrickson-designed covered lounge area. Minister of Tourism Edmund Bartlett, in his address, lauded the Courtleigh Hotel Group for its years of contribution to 'city tourism' as he offered congratulations on "the repositioning and reimagining of the garden experience that we are engaging in tonight". #PegasusPool vibes as Page 2 shares more.

Photographer: Garfield Robinson

Keeping It Cool...

...was Jamaica Pegasus Food & Beverage Manager Kemecia Fogo.

Bank On It!

Hanging out poolside were (from left) TD Bank Senior Product Owner Camille Goldson; PSOJ Executive Director Imega Breese McNab; and Exim Bank Managing Director Lisa Bell.

Cheers!

From left: Group Director of Marketing & Sales for the Courtleigh Group Nicola Madden-Greig; Minister of Tourism Edmund Bartlett; and Courtleigh Hotel Group Director of Special Projects Melissa Hendrickson raised a Robert Mondavi Pinot Noir toast to a successful opening.

Life Size

Sotheby's International Realty CEO Julian Dixon chilled poolside.

Poolside Therapy

Tropical Pools Brand Manager Nicola Ramanand relished her company's handiwork.

Sweeping In

IGT Country Manager Debbie Green swept in, wearing a Resortwear by Eroleen kaftan.

Double Take

Registered nurse Sasha-Lee Robinson (left) and attorney-at-law Cristal Brown were in the swing of things.

New Wave

Visiting from T&T and enjoying the Jamaica Pegasus hotel's pool opening was event manager Kimoy Attong.

NEW MIX & BLEND GREEN SEASONING

MORE FLAVOUR

SAVES PREP TIME

#Mix&Blenda

WALKERSWOOD Caribbean Foods