CANBERRA

A wide-angle photograph of the Parliament House in Canberra, Australia, taken at dusk. The building's iconic three-pronged spire is illuminated and stands out against the twilight sky. The main body of the building, with its grid of windows, is also lit from within, casting a warm glow. In the foreground, a circular garden bed with low-lying green plants is visible, and a large, calm pool of water reflects the building and the sky. The overall scene is serene and modern.
