

The Tale Berlin offers escapism and relaxation within walking distance to Potsdamer Platz and many other of the city's famous landmarks. Cinematic interiors convey the story of melding East and West, Jerusalem and Berlin, to create a magical extraterritorial place. The jewel in the crown is a carefully curated dining experience from Michelin star chef Assaf Granit.

LOCATION

Prime central location, within walking distance of all major tourist attractions. Within walking distance from Brandenburg Gate, Sony Centre, Mall of Berlin, and more.

DESIGN AESTHETIC

Cinematic interiors convey the story of melding East and West, Jerusalem and Berlin, to create a magical extraterritorial place.

HISTORY

Named after Gustav Stresemann, a key Weimar Republic statesman, Stresemannstraße was established in the 19th. It saw political and social changes during the turbulent 20th century, becoming eventually part of unified Berlin, reflecting the city's dynamic history.

ACCOMMODATION

- 141 rooms, suites & apartments
- Standard rooms 20 sqm
- Superior rooms 27 sqm
- Superior rooms with balcony 27 sqm
- Deluxe rooms 35 sqm
- Studios 38 sqm
- Junior suites 37 sqm
- Imperial suites 40 sqm
- Excelsior suites 45 sqm
- East apartments 63 sqm
- West apartments 60 sqm
- Grand apartments 63 sqm
- Lux apartments 60 sqm
- East/West penthouse 185 sqm
- Berlin penthouse 188 sqm

ROOM FEATURES

- Mini bar with regional products
- Coffee / tea maker
- Free Wi-fi
- Concierge tablet
- Flat-screen television
- Bathroom amenities
- Bathrobes and slippers
- Hairdryer
- Safe

DINING

1 Coffee shop, 1 Restaurant, 1 Bar

Café & Other Short Stories

- Breakfast: 7 am – 10:30 am
- Drinks & Snacks from 11:30 - 11 pm

Berta restaurant

- By Michelin star chef Assaf, offering a fusion of traditional family recipes with a modern touch
- Lunch from 11:30 am - 2:30 pm
- Dinner from 6:30 pm - 11:00 pm

Berta Bar

- From 6:00 pm - open end

SPA & WELLNESS

- 2 treatments rooms offering signature treatments using Sodashi's luxurious and potent plant and aromatherapy synergies.
- Gym

GUESTS SERVICES

- Concierge service
- Complimentary Wi-Fi
- Laundry service
- Parking area