

INDIAN PRODUCERS IN AUSTRALIA

Domaine Simha – Tasmania

Nav Singh's Domaine Simha, based in Tasmania, redefines winemaking with an avant-garde ethos. Guided by ancient techniques and minimal intervention, his wines are artfully crafted to express Tasmania's pristine terroir. Focusing on texture, balance, and purity, Domaine Simha produces singular Pinot Noir, Chardonnay, and Riesling that radiate elegance, precision, and a profound sense of place.

Lethbridge – Victoria

Ray Nadeson, a former neuroscientist, brings scientific precision and artistic vision to Lethbridge Wines in Geelong. Transitioning from neuroscience to winemaking, he now crafts terroir-driven wines with a focus on Pinot Noir, Shiraz, and textural whites. Using biodynamic practices and minimal intervention, Ray creates wines that reflect the cool-climate Geelong region with complexity, balance, and individuality.

Avani – Mornington Peninsula

Avani wines from the Mornington Peninsula are the vision of Shashi Singh, an Indian-born winemaker crafting organic, minimal-intervention wines that celebrate the purity of site. Known for her vibrant Syrahs and textural whites, Shashi's approach bridges Indian heritage with Australian terroir, creating soulful, expressive wines that embody sustainability, elegance, and a deep connection to nature.
