Our feature ambassador for the month of June is Jaylyn, our Restaurant Supervisor in Winston's Resto-Bar at the Coast Prince George Hotel by APA in Prince George, BC.

Jaylyn's background is in pharmaceutical sales and marketing management in Singapore. She embraced the challenge of exploring new horizons overseas which led her to Canada, where she found her passion for hospitality. Jaylyn pursued her education with a post-diploma in tourism and hospitality management at CNC. Jaylyn path led her to Coast Prince George Hotel by APA, starting as a room attendant and quickly expanding her skills across various departments, from banquets to kitchen prep and landed in F&B where she obtained the position of Server where her adaptability and enthusiasm for serving shone through, leading to a Restaurant Supervisor position in Winston's.

Why did you choose the hospitality industry, and specifically Coast Hotels?

I researched Coast and applied for their reputation and this hotel is well established in PG. I know someone that worked at the hotel for 22 years and said she loved it. When there are so many staff that have 20 -30 year tenure, you know it is a good place to work
