WHO ARE WE?

OVERVIEW

WHAT?

Strahan Village is a 3-4.5* accommodation comprising a collection of rooms and cottages on the edge of Tasmania's World Heritage wilderness. From rustic waterfront cottages to spacious harbour view rooms with private balconies, there are options for everyone to soak up the charm of our little coastal town.

WHERE?

Strahan is situated on Tasmania's West Coast, approximately 5 hours from Hobart or 4 hours from Launceston. It offers access to one of the last great expanses of temperate rain forest found on the planet.

WHY?

Guests at Strahan Village can enjoy the natural charm of the West Coast wilderness. With everything from world-class cruising and outdoor adventure to excellent local food and wine, there is something here for everyone.

WHO?

Strahan Village welcomes travellers from all over the world. We work with FIT clients, groups, functions, conferences and special events. The hotel is a particular favourite for travellers embarking on the award-winning Gordon River Cruise or West Coast Wilderness Railway.
