SQUARE ONE

If her tastes lean toward the interplay of French sophistication and Vietnamese vibrancy, Chefs Arnaud and Trung Hau have orchestrated the perfect culinary symphony to enchant her senses. Offered for both lunch and dinner, the five-course menu is a tribute to two rich culinary heritages -crafted with finesse, and guided by a philosophy of sustainability and seasonality. Adding a final flourish to the experience: a rose to remember the moment, and a box of artisanal chocolates from Chocolaterie to carry the sweetness home.

Price is from VND 2,200,000 / guest

A DAY IN MEKONG DELTA & CAI BE

The Mekong Delta, located in Southern Vietnam, is known for its fertile lands, extensive waterways, and vibrant local culture. Here, the connection between people and nature is seamless, providing a travel experience that is both genuine and enriching.

Through our bespoke cultural tours, Park Hyatt Saigon offers a gateway to Vietnam's most authentic stories. Begin your day in Cai Thia Village with a leisurely cycle through mango orchards and quiet backroads, where generations-old traditions lay the foundation for everyday life. Visit a local family to learn the art of rice paper and sweet bánh tiêu – a golden, airy rice cake best enjoyed fresh, with a cup of hot tea and unhurried conversation. Onwards, enjoy lunch on board while cruising to Cai Be and Tan Phong Island – and start exploring the postcard of nature before your eyes on rowboats. Take another leisure cycling trip to cottage industries that craft everything from coconut candy to woven baskets. Designed for those who seek more than just sights, these experiences offer a connection to the land that is richly human.

Price is from VND 16,400,000 per two guests inclusive of:

- Private Transportation
- Entry Fees
- English-Speaking Guide
- Lunch
- Selection of Beverages

Prices is subject to service charge then VAT.
