A New Era of Events:

Paradox Singapore Unveils Newly Renovated Merchant Court Ballroom as a Modern Tribute to Celebration & Culture

Inspired by Singapore's rich multicultural heritage, the ballroom raises the bar for authentic hospitality and memorable occasions.

Singapore, 17 JUNE 2025 - Paradox Singapore proudly announces the grand debut of its newly renovated Merchant Court Ballroom, a stunning event space designed to inspire connection, creativity and celebration. This milestone marks a new chapter for the hotel as it redefines event experiences through thoughtful design, advanced technology and warm hospitality.

Spanning 660 square metres, the ballroom features a striking pillar-free layout crowned by soaring 5.5-metre ceilings. Floor-to-ceiling windows invite abundant natural light, while fully retractable walls allow the space to effortlessly transition from an intimate gathering to a grand affair, giving hosts the flexibility to tailor the setting to any occasion.

The centrepiece is a 21 x 4.3-metre panoramic LED video wall, forming part of an AV system that supports up to seven simultaneous visual displays. This cutting-edge feature surrounds and engages, elevating every moment. Just beyond, a light-filled pre-function foyer provides a stylish welcome for guest arrivals, networking sessions or cocktail receptions, enhanced by dynamic ambient lighting that shifts seamlessly between daylight, warm and cool tones. Six rigging points offer versatile staging and AV capabilities for event production needs.

In tandem with the ballroom transformation, all ten meeting rooms at Paradox Singapore have been fully upgraded to meet the demands of modern businesses and hybrid collaboration. Outfitted with intuitive Huawei IdeaHub smart boards, high-lumen projection systems and adaptable layouts, these spaces deliver clarity, agility and intelligent design – ideal for strategy sessions, workshops or high-impact presentations.

To introduce these refreshed venues, Paradox Singapore launches the “Meet with More” campaign, a limited-time package for event planners and corporate clients. Supported by a dedicated events team, each element is thoughtfully planned to ensure a seamless experience, from tailored menus to flawless execution, all delivered with the warmth and care Paradox is known for.

Meet with More Package Inclusions:

- Complimentary coffee break enhancements
- Room upgrades and complimentary transfers
- Flexible half-day and full-day meeting packages
- Exclusive group room rates for residential meetings
- Dining credits

As part of this celebration, Paradox Singapore will host “Fried Rice Paradise - The Makan Party” an immersive dinner theatre collaboration with the Singapore Repertory Theatre, blending local storytelling and culinary artistry. The event will feature a custom-crafted four-course menu and themed drinks, co-developed by SRT and Paradox culinary teams to “taste” the tale; course by course, aligned with the storyline.

Paradox Singapore also unveils four distinct wedding themes – Crimson Romance, Wonderland, Timeless Classic and Pastel Revelry – each reflecting modern love stories in a unique way. Lush floral installations and immersive LED visuals combine with elegant styling that bridges contemporary trends and timeless traditions, highlighting the ballroom as the perfect setting for unforgettable weddings.

“This isn’t just a venue refresh—it is a return to what makes events meaningful,” said Christine Choo, General Manager of Paradox Singapore. “The new Merchant Court Ballroom reflects our deep belief that connection lies at the heart of every celebration.
