

FOR THE RAINY DAY

HOW-TO GUIDE FOR A FUN RAINY DAY IN BETHEL, MAINE

COZY EXPLORERS & CREATIVE ENERGY

Morning:

- Start your day with a warm breakfast at The Millbrook Tavern—nothing beats watching the rain fall over the golf course while sipping coffee and enjoying a hearty meal.

Midday:

- Wander through Elements Art Gallery or pop into small-town shops for local art, antiques, and cozy Maine-made gifts. Let the kids pick a souvenir—or grab one yourself as a rainy day memento. Be sure to check for pop-up workshops or craft events at local spots like BAAM (Bethel Area Arts & Music).

Evening:

- Head back to your room or suite for a full-on cozy evening. Order takeout (pizza, BBQ, or even breakfast-for-dinner), put on pajamas, and have a movie night with popcorn and board games.

RAINY DAY WONDERS

Morning:

- Sleep in, then enjoy a low-key breakfast from DiCocoa's. A rainy morning is the perfect excuse for extra coffee and zero rush.

Midday:

- Bethel's Public Library is a cozy place to spend an hour or two—especially great with kids. Browse the shelves, read together, or just enjoy the peace and quiet while the rain taps the windows.

Evening:

- Grab dinner at Sunday River Brewing Co., where you can enjoy comfort food, craft brews, and a friendly atmosphere. Play a card game while you wait—it's part of the vibe.
