CH007

Louis Roederer Cristal Brut

$780

The Cristal is a terrific effort that transcends the vintage. Bursting from the glass with expressive aromas of ripe citrus fruit, nectarine, white flowers, freshly baked bread and subtle hints of honeycomb. It is medium to full-bodied, vinous and fleshy, with an exuberant core of fruit that's girdled by racy acids. A wine that's simultaneously chiselled and demonstrative, meaning that early appeal doesn't come at the expense of the requisite tension for long-term cellaring. Concluding with a long, aromatic and intensely chalky finish, it is a brilliant Champagne that will offer a broad drinking window.

There is a little grip and acid firmness, both of which combine to render a clean, refreshing aftertaste.

Beautiful; elegant claret with velvety tannins and a cassis fruit character, with some more complex earth tones.

FRW02

Reserve De La Comtesse Pauillac

$318

The 2014 Reserve de Comtesse de Lalande has a very fresh and vibrant bouquet with lovely cedar-infused black fruit that sings of Pauillac-ness. The palate is medium-bodied with fine tannin, crisp and elegant with a keen line of acidity. This feels quite linear at the moment and perhaps the finish could have dealt more complexity commensurate with the aromatics. Yet there is bundles of freshness infused into this Deuxième Vin and there is a palpable salinity on the aftertaste.
