WHISKEYS ALL SET.

Immerse yourself in a space where traditional drinking rituals are combined with Australian ingredients, flavours and nostalgic storytelling. bar tilda boasts an extensive spirits collection and a 80strong Australian whisky library housed in a handsome armoire, evoked by the glamour and nostalgia of the 1960s - the era the hotel was launched. Mid-century glamour is embodied in the bar's signature Flora Martini, made tableside and poured into a bespoke glass. Other creations such as Dollars and Cents, a tropical drink featuring London dry gin, pineapple jam, pepper, macadamia, citrus, and lime oil commemorating Australia's 1966 currency change, and Lost At Sea, a tribute to former prime minister Harold Holt who disappeared at a Victorian beach in 1967, blending botanical vodka, tea tree, orange, lemon salt, and green apple, marry storytelling with innovation.

FRENCH TECHNIQUE, VIETNAMESE SOUL.

Delta Rue is a French-Vietnamese restaurant that blends the flavours and atmosphere of both cultures. It has a dining area and a deck and is located on level 5. Using colonial French and Vietnamese design cues (murals, salvaged timbers, muted wallpapers, etc.), the décor draws inspiration from old-world Hanoi (Old Quarter). The menu includes items like rice cakes stuffed with meat, turmeric-roasted John Dory, and communal plates including herbs, spices, and a strong flavour. Additionally, Delta Rue serves a buffet and à la carte breakfast menu in the mornings that features local ingredients. The space is spacious and lively.
