

World's smallest chef returns to Vancouver with a new show!

After the great success celebrated by the world's smallest chef in Vancouver, "Le Petit Chef", a 3D dinner theatre, is now coming back with a new show, Le Petit Chef & Friends at Paradox Hotel Vancouver.

Vancouver, 29.01.2024, Paradox Hotel Vancouver invites you to join an immersive Le Petit Chef & Friends show combining 3D theatre and dining. Before, during and after dinner, the smallest chef in the world and his friends entertain the guests with various performances and recordings. After a short introduction of the little chefs, a virtual cooking competition begins, and the guest can look forward to a varied menu with Spanish, Italian, French and Japanese specialties. It is a dinner theatre that inspires entire families worldwide. The interplay of a virtual cooking show and a delicious real menu offers a unique experience for all the senses.

At Paradox Hotel Vancouver, we love offering unique and unforgettable experiences to our guests, blending the essence of edgy luxury with a commitment to creating memorable moments for families and individuals alike. This year, we are thrilled to host the immersive dining experience 'Le Petit Chef and Friends,' an unconventional culinary adventure that creates an enchanting environment that captivates the imagination of all ages fostering a sense of community and shared wonder.

The carefully crafted menu offers dishes such as Vine Ripe and Cherry Tomatoes with Warm Tomato essence, Manchego Cheese, Pine Nuts, Basil and Chervil, for a taste of Spain. The culinary journey continues in Italy with Wild Mushroom Ravioli. The main course is Grilled Certified Angus Beef Tenderloin with Sauce Béarnaise, Triple Cooked French Fries, complemented by Seasonal Vegetables for a touch of French elegance. Dining adventure finishes in Japan with a Matcha Green Tea Cheesecake.

With Vegetarian and Kid's menu variants available, there's something to please every palate, ensuring an unforgettable experience for all guests.

"After the great success celebrated by the world's smallest chef in Vancouver, we are delighted that Le Petit Chef is returning to the city with a new show. Together with the team on site we are happy to bring Le Petit Chef & Friends, closer to guests from Vancouver and the region, for an unforgettable theater and dinner experience," says Christine Corvers-Vitzu, Managing Director of 2Spicy Entertainment GmbH.

Behind the elaborate animations lies the Belgian artist collective "Skullmapping", founded in 2010 by Filip Sterckx and Antoon Verbeeck. Using 3D mapping technology and profound artistic expertise, the 58 mm small chef was brought to life in 2015.

Starting from February 29th, 2024, "Le Petit Chef & Friends" will run Thursday to Sunday at 6pm.. Don't miss out and join us at Paradox Hotel Vancouver for this extraordinary immersive dining experience.
