TENNESSEE WHISKEY TRIVIA

- The Jack Daniel's Distillery, registered in 1866, is the nation's oldest registered distillery. It is located in Lynchburg, TN, Moore County, a dry county since 1908.
- Jack Daniel's Old no7 Black Label is the #1 selling whiskey in the world.
- Jack Daniel's Gold no27 is a barreled twice hence the two in its name. It can also only be bought in Tennessee or in airports duty free & military bases.
- Jack Daniel's Single Barrel is the bottling of one individual barrel, un-mingled with other barrels, while Jack Daniel's Black Label is the bottling of many barrels mingled together to produce a consistent taste. Black Label is 80-proof while Single Barrel is 94-proof.
- Charcoal mellowing makes Jack Daniel's what it is – a Tennessee Whiskey, not a Bourbon. Jack Daniel's is mellowed through ten feet of sugar maple charcoal, giving the whiskey a rich flavor even before it matures in barrels of their own making.
- Age by itself isn't a reliable measure of a whiskey's quality and character. That's why Jack Daniel's doesn't follow a calendar. The whiskey is ready when the Distillery's Master Tasters say it is.

The Taste That Started the Tradition

In 1933, The Peabody's general manager returned from a "Tennessee whiskey"- soaked hunting trip and mischievously slipped his live duck decoys into the hotel's lobby fountain. He unwittingly set in motion one of the travel industry's most eccentric and beloved traditions... the March of the Peabody Ducks.
