Refreshed A La Carte Menu at Escape Restaurant

Mar 2023 – Look out for a refreshed A La Carte menu with hearty Western cuisine and interesting twists on local dishes by Executive Chef Marcus Tan from April 2023.

Aiming to impress our diners, Executive Chef Marcus Tan is focusing on three key elements: infusing Western elements into local dishes, usage of fresh ingredients in sauces and cooking methods to preserve the authentic flavour. This is evident in his two new signature dishes: Super Lobster Laksa and Wok Fried “Hor Fun” with Seared Ribeye Steak.

Brought back by popular demand, the Super Lobster Laksa is a heartier version of the iconic dish. Concocted based on his secret recipe, the semi-spicy broth is topped with a poached whole lobster. The natural sweetness of the lobster rhymes well with the richness of the coconut milk-based broth. As for the Wok Fried “Hor Fun” with Seared Ribeye Steak, it consists of silky smooth rice noodles that is drenched in chef’s homemade black bean sauce. Stacked on top of the noodles is a slab of beef ribeye steak that is pan-seared to perfection.

Signature grilled meats such as Home-style Barbecued Pork Ribs and Braised Moroccan-Style Lamb Shank are also available. Sous vide for 24 hours, the pork rib is marinated with homemade BBQ Sauce and masterfully grilled. For the Braised Moroccan-Style Lamb Shank, it aims to give a refreshing aftertaste with the addition of homemade mint sauce.

For sweet treats after a good meal, look no further than the Kaya Toast Mille-Feuille, and the Ondeh Ondeh cake. The Kaya Toast Mille-Feuille mimics the local favourite; a slice of buttery brioche with kaya cream and aromatic “Kopi” Ice Cream. The Ondeh Ondeh cake is served with coconut ice cream and berries compote.

Located at level 6 beside the pool, Escape is an all-day dining restaurant that operates from 12 pm – 9.30 pm daily.
