

Located on the southern Spanish Costa del Sol, in the heart of the “Golden Mile” and only five minutes to Old Town Marbella and Puerto Banús, the Marbella Club Hotel · Golf Resort & Spa enjoys 325 days of sunshine. .

Open year round, the renowned Marbella Club Hotel, one of the “The Leading Hotels of the World,” was once the private residence of Prince Alfonso von Hohenlohe and features 114 luxury bedrooms and suites and 16 Andalusian-style villas spread along 90.000 square metres (968.751 sq. ft.) of lush subtropical garden.

Thoughtfully designed for all generations, the hotel offers eight restaurants and bars, three outdoor swimming pools, a boutique shopping area, a 5,000m<sup>2</sup> Kids Club, a padel court, an equestrian centre and an 18-hole golf course in the hills of Benahavís, designed by Dave Thomas.

Wellbeing is woven into every corner of the Marbella Club, from the Thalasso Spa overlooking the Mediterranean and the serene Holistic Studio to Finca Ana María—a recent extension of the hotel’s gardens that fosters a connection with nature through rest, movement and wholesome cuisine.

RESTAURANTS

El Patio	As beloved by in-the-know locals as our seasoned guests, spend time outside all year round in this magical sanctuary. Come for a coffee while you read the paper, meet for lunch, aperitifs, or after-hours cocktails and Galician oysters and dine among the jasmine scented vines.
	Dress code: casual
El Grill	Our master of the grill has followed in the footsteps of his father, Roque, to offer time-tested recipes brought to life over a crackling fire. Legendary silver service, the twinkle of the decades-old candles on the outdoor terrace, and the stir of the soaring pines complement the finest, heart-warming cuisine.
	Dress code: elegant
MC Beach	MC Beach takes a cue from Malaga’s traditional chiringuitos, laid-back fish and seafood restaurants right on the beach. Brushed in blues and whites, it’s where tables buzz with generations of locals for sangria-fuelled lunches over sardinas al espeto. The perfect seaside siesta to sunset-watching address.
	Dress code: casual
Beach Club	Our sun-splashed Beach Club joyful look takes its inspiration from the historical ‘palapa’ roof and reminiscent of 1950’s Acapulco, once the playground for the world’s elite – and our Prince Alfonso von Hohenlohe. The palette of the Beach Club is awash with hues of minty, tropical greens and vibrant corals with reimagined al fresco hangout areas for guests in the lounge, bar and pool to while away the day.
	Dress code: casual

Garden Pool	Tucked into one of the sunniest corners of the hotel, the Garden Pool brings together easygoing poolside living with fresh Mediterranean flavours. Think garden salads, grilled fish, colourful bowls and a few family favourites – simple dishes to share, often turning into leisurely lunches. Whether you’ve just stepped out of the water or dropped by for the food, this is the spot for a laid-back bite under the sun.
	Dress code: casual
Rudi’s	Celebrate the Marbella Club’s enduring sociable spirit with champagne or a cocktail in our elegant homage to our cherished Count. Pause for tapas, a game of backgammon, and a fireside nightcap over live music in this timeless Bohemian lounge.
	Dress code: elegant
Summer Bar	To the tinkle of the piano and sounds of the nightly live music, guests are invited to kick off their evening or while the night away in the heady jasmine-scented orange grove of the eponymous Summer Bar, host to many an illustrious guest throughout the years and many a fable to tell.
	Dress code: elegant
El Olivar by Chef Andrés	At El Olivar, Chef Andrés Ruiz lets the garden lead the way, creating each day’s menu around what’s growing at Finca Ana María—just steps from the kitchen. Set beside the adults-only pool, the restaurant sits within the finca itself, surrounded by more than 300 seasonal varieties that shape its plant-led offering. The result is a daily-changing selection of vibrant, nourishing dishes—rooted in the land, guided by the season and prepared with care and creativity.
	We welcome resident guests over the age of 16.
