TIMELESSLY YOURS SINCE 2005

1950 THE BRINK HOTEL

This historic site began its journey as The Brink Hotel, a discreet landmark during the war years and a quiet observer of pivotal moments in Vietnam's modern history.

2005 A NEW CHAPTER BUILT ON HERITAGE

More than half a century later, Park Hyatt Saigon opened its doors on July 15. Being the first Hyatt property in Vietnam, and the first luxury hotel in Ho Chi Minh City, Park Hyatt Saigon became a new landmark in the city, setting a new benchmark for hospitality in the region.

2005-2015 A LEGACY BEGAN

- Opera, with its open kitchen and terrace, became a beloved place for family brunches and hearty Italian dinners.
- Square One introduced a bold dual-cuisine concept, establishing itself as a culinary leader.
- Park Lounge became the city's beloved destination, known for elegant afternoon teas and live performances.
- 2 Lam Son became a contemporary nightlife icon, drawing both international travelers and local tastemakers.
- Masters of Food & Wine, Park Hyatt's global gourmet series, made its Saigon debut in 2012. The mansion welcomed chefs, sommeliers, and artists of the tables, celebrating food as a cultural art form.
- International recognition arrived swiftly, with early accolades from Condé Nast Traveler, Travel + Leisure, and regional awards.

2015-2019 LUXURY REDEFINED

- Marking its 10th anniversary, Park Hyatt Saigon underwent a visionary transformation: Architecture by Chan Soo Khian (SCDA Architects), interiors by Laval, art collection by Ben Thanh Art Gallery and lacquerware by Hanoia.
- In 2015, the hotel unveiled newly renovated guestrooms and event venues, elevating timeless French colonial charm with modern sophistication.
- Art at The Park debuted the same year, bringing together emerging and established Vietnamese artists with a community of collectors and connoisseurs.
- The Pastry Boutique opened in 2016, introducing Saigon to a refined world of French patisserie and artisanal sweets, crafted daily as exquisite gifts for guests and locals alike.
- In 2017, Park Hyatt Saigon reimaged its celebrated restaurants, giving Opera and Square One a sophisticated makeover in interiors and culinary identities.
- In 2018, 2 Lam Son bar was given a contemporary facelift, creating a stylish destination for Saigon's cosmopolitan crowd.
- That same year, Floral poet Alfie Lin introduced a hotel-wide flower concept, connecting East and West through seasonal stories in bloom.
- 2018 also marked the launch of Passion Week, a week-long celebration of art, beauty, inspiration and gastronomy that attracted connoisseurs from around the globe.
- In 2019, the hotel completed its transformation with a luxury redefinition of its lobby, the elegant Park Lounge, and its grand driveway, welcoming guests with renewed grace and timeless glamour.
- Following the redefinition, Park Hyatt Saigon was honoured in Condé Nast Traveler Gold List in 2018, listed as one of Top 100 Hotels in the World by Travel + Leisure in 2019 and received Best Hotel Makeovers in Asia by Smart Travel Asia in 2020.

2019-2025 A CASCADE OF RECOGNITION

- The hotel continued to garner prestigious accolades, including Top 30 Hotels in Asia by Condé Nast Traveler in 2021, The 15 Best City Hotels in Asia by Travel + Leisure in 2022 and 2023, Top 5 Hotels in Southeast Asia by Condé Nast Traveler in 2024.
- In 2022, the hotel expanded its legacy of craftsmanship with the opening of Chocolaterie – a destination for world-class artisanal chocolate.
- Opera was recognised by Gambero Rosso as one of the Best Italian Restaurants in Vietnam in 2022, 2023 and 2024.
- In 2023, celebrity perfumer Blaise Mautin translated the spirit of Park Hyatt Saigon into a signature scent, offering an invisible welcome that lingers in memory.
- Square One was proudly listed in the MICHELIN Guide Vietnam in 2023, and has continued to uphold its presence in the prestigious guide for three consecutive years.
- In 2025, Park Hyatt Saigon commemorated its 20th anniversary with a year-long celebration that highlights rare discoveries, enriching connections and sophisticated lifestyles through remarkable partnerships with visionary brands and masters.
