

HOTEL JACKSON

JACKSON HOLE  TOWN SQUARE

Hotel Jackson Announces Michelin Starred Chef Malyna Si To Helm New Signature Restaurant, Anchoring The Property's Sweeping Expansion, The Retreat at Hotel Jackson

Family-Owned Luxury Boutique Hotel in Jackson, Wyoming Welcomes Si As Executive Chef Overseeing All F&B Including A New Signature Restaurant, While Introducing New Luxury Suites and a State-Of-The-Art Spa – All Set To Open in Summer 2025

Jackson Hole, WY – [September 10, 2024] – Hotel Jackson, an award winning, family-owned luxury boutique hotel in the heart of Jackson, Wyoming is thrilled to announce the appointment of acclaimed Executive Chef Malyna Si who will lead the hotel's culinary concepts including locally beloved FIGS and a new signature restaurant opening in Summer 2025. Chef Si, renowned in recent years as the only woman to lead a Michelin-starred restaurant in Florida, will bring her creative vision to the vibrant Jackson Hole dining scene with the elegant new signature steakhouse restaurant.

A feast for the eyes as much as the palate, a spectacular open kitchen will feature a wood fire grill for open-fire cooking, and diners will be treated to tableside carts, unique menu flights and other decadent touches in the expansive 150-seat space with a menu that will reflect the bounty of the valley's regional ingredients, as well as its storied past.

"I am excited to join the wonderful team at Hotel Jackson," said Chef Si. "Jackson Hole is such a special and inspiring destination, and I love creating bespoke experiences and lasting memories through my cooking. The new restaurant will be a celebration of the senses, a place where all are welcome to truly indulge."

Born in Philadelphia to a Vietnamese, Chinese and Laotian mother and Cambodian father, Si started cooking after college, and worked her way up from prep cook to her most recent role as Restaurant Chef of the Michelin Star-rated Capa Steakhouse at Four Seasons Resort Orlando. Si will oversee all culinary operations at the hotel including the property's beloved Lebanese restaurant FIGS, the rooftop bar and lounge and the new signature restaurant.

The Retreat at Hotel Jackson is an impressive expansion designed by FFKR with interiors by TrueEx Cullins, as well as Parts and Labor Design. Situated next door to the original 55-room hotel which opened in 2015 and overlooking the famed Jackson Town Square, The Retreat at Hotel Jackson will comprise the all-new construction including nine new luxury suites and a 2,000 square foot rooftop bar and lounge with sweeping views of Snow King Mountain, a 7,000 square foot state-of-the-art spa and wellness center, infinity pool, salon, and new signature restaurant.

HOTEL JACKSON

JACKSON HOLE  TOWN SQUARE

"This has been a years-long labor of love, and we are thrilled to finally unveil these incredible new offerings to our guests," said Sadek Darwiche, General Manager of Hotel Jackson. "Our goal has always been to provide an intimate, unparalleled guest experience, and these enhancements, including a new restaurant helmed by the incredibly gifted Chef Si, are set to transform the landscape of Jackson Hole."

For more information, go to www.HotelJackson.com

About Hotel Jackson:

Situated in the heart of downtown Jackson Hole, Wyoming with breathtaking views of Snow King and Jackson Valley Mountains, the LEED-built, Forbes 4-star Hotel Jackson redefines the art of western hospitality with exquisite accommodations in a pristine setting for an extraordinary luxury hotel experience. Opened in June 2015, Hotel Jackson is recognized as a AAA Four Diamond property and offers 55 stunning guest rooms including 4 suites nestled among some of the country's best skiing, white water rafting, ziplining, hiking and fly fishing, minutes away from Grand Teton National park and just an hour away from Yellowstone National Park. Located around the corner from the site of the original namesake hotel built in the 1900's, Hotel Jackson combines rustic elegance with a contemporary western design. Warm reclaimed barn wood, soft leather elements and modern western décor pay homage to the hotel's heritage. Hotel Jackson's restaurant FIGS is located directly adjacent to the lobby and serves Lebanese cuisine inspired by the owners' heritage; open daily for breakfast, lunch and dinner. Hotel guests also enjoy access to the exclusive Sacajawea Library, an intimate space for reading and relaxation, offering hand-crafted cocktails, wine, beer and small plates. In Summer of 2025, Hotel Jackson will unveil The Retreat at Hotel Jackson featuring nine new luxury suites, a 2,000 square foot rooftop bar and lounge, a 7,000 square foot spa and wellness center and new signature restaurant, helmed by Michelin Starred Executive Chef Malyna Si. For more information, please visit www.hoteljackson.com

Contact:

NextJen PR

Hoteljackson@NextJenPR.com

Jennifer Evans Gardner, (310) 467-2560

Rachel Farnham, (612) 270-4506