Park Hotel Kyoto Marks 5th Anniversary with Limited Stay Offer

Kyoto, Japan – Park Hotel Kyoto celebrates its 5th anniversary this month, marking five years of welcoming travellers to the heart of Kyoto.

Centrally located just three minutes from the subway and within walking distance of the UNESCO World Heritage site, Nijō Castle, the hotel has established itself as a convenient and well-connected base for exploring the city.

In 2025, the hotel was recognised with the TripAdvisor Travellers' Choice Award and currently ranks #25 out of more than 300 hotels in Kyoto. The recognition reflects consistent guest satisfaction and the hotel's focus on personalised, thoughtful hospitality.

“As we celebrate our fifth anniversary, we are sincerely grateful to our guests who have supported us over the years,” said Tomoyoshi Yoshida, General Manager of Park Hotel Kyoto. “With the upcoming sakura season and continued interest in Kyoto as a global destination, we look forward to welcoming both returning and first-time visitors to experience the city from what we believe is the perfect base.”

To mark the milestone, Park Hotel Kyoto is offering a limited Free Night stay available for bookings made by 31 August 2026:

- Stay 3 nights, pay for 2
- Stay 4 nights, pay for 3

The offer is available exclusively through the hotel's official website and is designed to encourage longer stays, giving guests more time to explore Kyoto's cultural landmarks, neighbourhood cafés and seasonal beauty.

Five years on, Park Hotel Kyoto remains focused on strengthening direct bookings and enhancing the guest experience, as it enters its next chapter in one of Japan's most visited cities. For more information or reservations, please visit the official website.
