Terms and Conditions for rental agreement form

The following rules govern use of meeting space in the University of Sydney – Regiment Building. Meeting Organizations agree to abide by these rules as a condition of use. Violations may result in revocation of conference room privileges. Once the completed application and security deposit are received, the University of Sydney staff will confirm the reservation in writing via email.

- The University of Sydney – Regiment Building provides meeting space for all businesses including non-profits. The rooms are available for rental Monday through Friday during Our business hours (9:00 am to 5:00 pm).
- Access to the Venue is granted by the reception, and you must contact the reception on 0448093906 if you happen to get locked out of the premises.
- The University of Sydney may appoint (or may have appointed) an Operator as its agent to manage this Agreement on behalf of the University.
- University of Sydney requests that each Meeting Organization designate one person to handle all communications and transactions with University of Sydney. That designated person must be on-site throughout the rental period.
- The University of Sydney – Regiment Building meeting and conference facilities are located within the building's private floor. Meeting activity for all meeting participants is restricted to the rented conference room area, catering set up area and restrooms only. The Meeting organiser/ the applicant is responsible for communicating this to its meeting participants.
- The University of Sydney - Regiment Building is a smoke free building. Smoking is not allowed anywhere within the building including the outdoor common area. Any guest found smoking in the building will be charged $100. If the fire alarm is activated due to negligence, the cost of any false alarm call-out fees charged by Fire & Rescue NSW (which is a minimum of $1,600.00 at the time of printing) will be passed on to you.
- There is a standard setup for each room. If the Meeting Organization prefers a different configuration of the room, there will be an additional fee for this service. The Meeting Organization is responsible for returning the room to the same condition it was in prior to the Meeting Organization's event. The Room(s) must be left in good order, disposing of all the paper, bottles, cups, etc. in trash receptacles.
- Food and non-alcoholic beverages are allowed. Meeting Organizations must sign for delivery of their catering orders and can request assistance to help with set up for an additional fee. University of Sydney – Regiment Building will not place orders with caterers but can provide a list of local caterers, if needed, to the Meeting Organization.
- University of Sydney reserves the right to assess a fee if the meeting facility or its equipment is damaged or otherwise not returned to its original condition.
- It is agreed that The University of Sydney is in no way liable for any personal injury, damages o property, or other liability that may occur using the facility. Renter agrees to release compensation and keep the University of Sydney – Regiment Building space harmless from any such damage.
- The conference Room is not to be used for any reason of fraud.
- The University is subject to the Privacy and Personal Information Protection Act 1998 (NSW) The University has a Privacy Policy and a Privacy Management Plan which sets out how it will comply with those Acts. Both documents are available online at: <http://sydney.edu.au/arms/privacy/index.shtml>.
