Luxury Offerings this Season with Manuel Galan, Director of Operations, Fiesta Americana Travelty Collection

Q1: Can you tell us what exciting developments luxury hotels in the Fiesta Americana Travelty Collection have in store for their guests this fall, as it's the season when they traditionally diversify their offerings? A: Absolutely, this fall season brings a burst of new dining experiences at Grand Fiesta Americana Coral Beach Cancun. Luxury travelers are in for a treat with three exceptional options. First up, we have Chianti – II Consorzio, bringing the rich flavors of Tuscany, Italy to Cancun. Then, there's Torii, an immersive Asian fusion dining experience that promises a modern culinary journey.

Finally, Havanna Club, an Argentinian Mexican Steakhouse and Latino lounge, offers classic favorites and the finest Argentinian Angus quality grilled cuts. At night, Havanna Club transforms into a vibrant nightclub for those seeking a lively atmosphere. These new dining experiences are sure to create unforgettable memories at our resort.

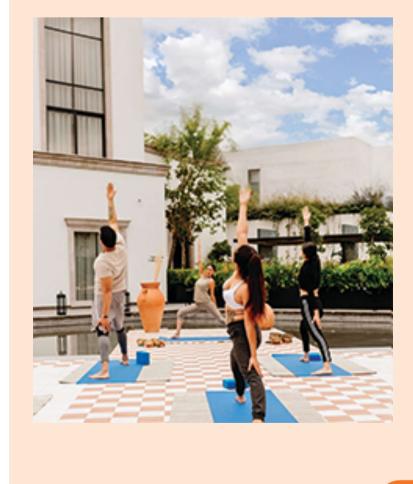

Q2: Fall usually welcomes various festivals and cultural celebrations. How do your luxury hotels collaborate with local activities to offer guests a holistic experience combining luxury hospitality and cultural attractions? A: Our holiday season kicks-off with our Dia de los Muertos celebration, a significant and widely observed holiday throughout all of Mexico. We're proud to say that our properties fully embrace this occasion, and offer guests a colorful ambiance, along with special menu items, as well as culturally-relevant activities and excursions.

For example, at Live Aqua Cancun, our dedicated staff meticulously crafts a colossal carpet made of rice grains over the span of several days. In addition, our menus feature delightful dishes like mole and tamales, allowing guests to savor authentic, and seasonal flavors.

Q3: Sustainability and social responsibility are gaining importance in the hotel industry. How do luxury hotels respond to this trend with sustainable practices and eco-friendly experiences for their guests in the upcoming months? A: This year, we're thrilled to announce that over 150 of our hotels have earned the prestigious Green Key certification, showcasing our commitment to environmental awareness. We actively engage our guests, ensuring they're well-informed about our eco-friendly practices. In addition, our dedicated staff members receive comprehensive training to effectively uphold these practices.

Furthermore, Live Aqua Cancún and Los Cabos boast beautiful beaches that have earned the esteemed Blue Flag certification, a globally recognized accolade for sustainable tourism destinations. To achieve this distinction, we adhere to rigorous environmental, educational, safety, and accessibility criteria. Our goal with the Blue Flag Programme is to connect the public with their natural surroundings, fostering a deeper understanding of the environment. We offer environmental education activities and provide information related to the site's biodiversity, ecosystems, and environmental phenomena to enhance the overall guest experience.
