COMMENTARY

Following the stabilisation of Kenya's political environment in the second quarter 2018, market sentiment continues to indicate a consistent return of confidence in the tourism sector. Indeed this optimism has been prevalent beyond Kenva and extended across the East African region.

The Company's diversified portfolio in East Africa recorded satisfactory growth in both corporate and domestic leisure segments during the year under review. To complement this, post July 2018, reassuring business levels from the foreign leisure market segment were experienced across the East African Serena Safari Circuits in Kenya, Tanzania and Zanzibar.

The first phase of the redevelopment of Nairobi Serena Hotel was successfully completed in August 2018, leading to improved performance in the fourth quarter 2018. Completion of the new: bedrooms (half room inventory), ballroom, meeting rooms, and public areas generated incremental revenues. Similarly, the 2017 refurbished facilities at Kampala Serena Hotel and Dar es Salaam Serena Note contributed positively during the year 2018. Early indications from these strategic business developments are encouraging and validate the Board's vision to reposition the Serena City Hotel brand in Nairobi, Kampala and Dar es Salaam. This progress bodes well for future market share growth in our City Hotels.

Furthermore, our brand footprint continues to strengthen with two key developments in our managed properties, namely: the successful completion of the international 18-hole Golf Course, at Lake Victoria Serena Golf Resort & Spa; and the advanced opening plan for Goma Serena Hotel, scheduled for opening in the third quarter 2019.

The Company continues to operate in a generally subdued global economic The company continues to operate in a generally subqued global economic and business climate primarily caused by: over supply of hotels and lodges in competitive locations, abrupt changes in laws and regulations adversely impacting an enabling business environment, security alerts, unexpected increases in energy and other related operating costs; and material forex currency fluctuations.

The last few years have provided a real test for companies operating in the East African Tourism industry, so we are pleased to note that despite such turbulence, the Company has continued to demonstrate its 'Built to Last' capability through implementation of its successful business model; and the spirit and service motto of its employees of 'living up to the promise'.

Notwithstanding the challenging business landscape, financial performance from our business strategy was encouraging. During the year under review, TPS Eastern Africa PLC (TPSEAP) achieved a turnover of KShs. 6.59 billion (2017: KShs. 6.34 billion), and a profit after tax of KShs 179.01 million, up by 49.8% (2017: KShs. 119.47 million). Given that Nairobi Serena Hotel was undergoing its redevelopment program (operating at 46% of its room inventory) with significantly reduced meeting space, the Company's performance for the year 2018 is satisfactory. Losking ahead, with full room inventory in place, future projections remain reassuring particularly once the final phase of Nairobi Serena Hotel's medvelonment is completed in June 2019. Hotel's redevelopment is completed in June 2019.

The Company and its subsidiaries contributed significantly to the revenues of the governments of Kenya, Tanzania and Uganda in 2018. During the year 2018, the Group paid in aggregate, the equivalent of KShs. 1.564 billion (2017: KShs. 1.481 billion) in direct and indirect taxes; and equivalent of KShs. 4.38 million (2017: when the second se

The Group will progress planned refurbishment of its other properties, continue to maintain appropriate Human Resource Management practices, and promote to maintain appropriate numan resource Management practices, and promote sound Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) programs that complement its long-term business strategy. The CSR programs remain fully aligned to achieving the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) set out by the United Nations Development Programme. Our sustainable business practices continue to compliment eco-tourism, environmental conservation, reafforestation, diversion autoble bachtur and econtribut conservation approximate across education, public health; and essentially community development across Eastern Africa.

Market indications from Serena's suppliers of business impacting Kenya Tanzania and Uganda are encouraging, with foreign leisure bookings projected to continue on a growth trajectory; whilst the diversified revenue streams from the wider Serena portfolio is similarly favorable for 2019. The Group continues to effectively risk manage its business strategy and thereby maintain the focus on mitigating risks; and capitalise on its brand strength to optimize portfolio performance in 2019, to the extent possible.

The Board and Management express their appreciation to the governments within the East African Region for facilitating the continuous resource allocation required to improve the business environment for destination East Africa.
